

DEDICATE GIFTS AT ANNIVERSARY OF ST. MATTHEW'S

The Rt. Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, former Bishop of Niagara was the special preacher at the first of the services held last evening to commemorate the ninetieth anniversary of St. Matthew's Church. Bishop Broughall urged the members of the congregation to cherish their heritage as Canadians and as members of the Anglican Communion. There was great opportunity for witness in Aldershot, he said, and expressed the hope that he would see an extension of the church, or a new church, which would be adequate for the growth of the parish.

Other clergy assisting the rector, Rev. C. S. Wright in the service, were Archdeacon G. F. Scoville, Rev. E. E. Lake and Rev. A. B. Higginson. Miss Marilyn Webber sang a solo in the anthem.

Bishop Broughall dedicated two gifts to the church, a silver chalice given in memory of John William Atkins by his family, and a red burse, veil and missal markers to be used in the altar service on saints' days.

Following the service, a reception was held in the parish hall, convened by the ladies of the Evening Guild.

NEW PROCESSIONAL CROSS USED IN SUNDAY SERVICE

St. Matthew's Anglican Church was filled to capacity for the 11 o'clock Remembrance Day Service yesterday morning. The Sovereign Chapter of the I. O. D. E. attended as well as veterans of three wars. W. A. Fellowes acted as M. C. for the colour party and the bugler party. Mrs. A. Coombe, flag-bearer for the I. O. D. E. was assisted by Mrs. Eileen Sancton and Mrs. Edith Bayliss.

The flag was presented and placed in the sanctuary. Following the State prayers which the rector, the Rev. C. S. Wright read at the altar, the bugler, T. Walmsley, a veteran of the First World War, escorted by Henry Mann, veteran of the South African War and John Read, veteran of the Second World War, advanced to the altar rail. The Memorial For Fallen Comrades was read and the bugler sounded Last Post and Reveille.

Herbert Coates, newly appointed honorary assistant, read the lessons. Cecil McFadden was Cross bearer and A. V. Laidman was server in the procession, when the new processional cross given to the church by J. F. Read in memory of Alfred Thomas Read was used. Four veterans, Dr. G. W. Spinks, A. Smith, R. H. Spencer and A. Liddiard, were sidesmen for the service.
