

Lowville - "down by the old mill stream"

STEPS joining the valley with the upper part of the village provide a short-cut. They were first in 1878. At the base are the Twelve Mile Creek and Lowville Park. The Guelph Line continues directly in line with the steps and the escarpment can be seen on the horizon.