

crowd all the way, but Bournemouth's ace "spiker"--Bob Stevenson, of Kitchener, Ontario, (24 Chapel St.)--turned in a sparkling performance that made him everybody's favourite.

In the semi-finals, Bournemouth beat the Continent team, 15-1; 11-15; 15-11, while Leeming downed Wombleton, 5-15; 15-5; 15-8. Wombleton had tough luck on the opening day of the tournament when their captain, YMCA Supervisor Clayton Batson, of Brantford, Ontario, (274 Murray St.), suffered a severe ankle sprain. Short of substitutes, he insisted on playing right through every game, but never reached his starry best.

The Leeming line-up was: LAC A. G. Pike, Winnipeg, (1153 Strathcona St.), Cpl. Roy Conacher, Toronto, Ontario, 44 Duggan Ave.); F/S Jack Cain, team captain, Lindsay, Ontario; Cpl. James Somerville, Chippawa, Ontario; LAC A. W. Wells, Ottawa, (584 Lisgar St.); Cpl. B. Wycherley, Toronto, (17 Woodrow Ave.); and LAC Russell Brand, Winnipeg, (608 McGee St.).

S/L J. C. Steele, of Vancouver, (559-East 52nd, St.), and Mansfield, Ohio, (47 Douglas Ave.), refereed the games. An old "set-up" man himself, S/L Steele was a member of the Chicago Hyde Park team that won the American National volleyball championship in 1927. Scorekeeper was F/L C. E. Hollingsworth, of Athens, Ontario.
