

An interesting and impressive service was held in Cambridge St. United Church Sunday night, when an honor roll of some seventy-five names was dedicated and placed in the memorial entrance.

The roll, containing the names of men from the church, now on active service in Canada or in other lands, has been hand-engraved on parchment, and nicely framed.

A large number of people gathered for the service, which was in charge of Rev. J. J. Black, assisted by Rev. F. H. McIntosh, while the address was delivered by Mr. C. G. Frost. The honor roll, as read by Rev. Mr. Black, was as follows:

R. L. Allely, John Allely, R. R. T. Adams, T. R. Arnold, W. S. W. Erese, T. M. F. Brisbin, Russell Barton (killed in England), Wallace Barton, Maurice Bryson, Stanley Bryson, Lawson Blakeley, Lloyd Beadle, S. E. Alsop, Morley Donaldson, R. L. Day, Frank Day, Ivan C. Day, Donald G. Corley, Jack Corley, W. E. Fletcher, Arthur H. Fletcher, A. G. Gamble, Don Ferguson, Gordon Frederick, Bruce Frederick, Eugene Frederick, Edmund Eberts, R. C. Harpur, G. A. Harpur, Carl Hussey, Lloyd Hussey, Hilton Hadley, Garth G. Harding, Geo. Edward Hall, William G. Hope, H. G. Joyce, M. L. Joyce, I. W. Johnston, B. M. Johnston, W. E. M. Muir, Norman C. Lindsay, J. A. Nugent, W. S. Nugent, C. V. Mulligan, Arnold Myers, R. A. Patterson, Albert Parrish, J. W. Parker, Norman Skitch, H. R. Stinson, F. T. Stinson, Melville Scott, Everett G. Scott, Beverly Scott, Howard Sleep, M. F. Sutcliffe, Harold Sutton, J. D. Steen, J. Allister