

“LOUIS PASTEUR” BRINGS
LINDSAY SOLDIERS BACK TO LINDSAY AND HOME

Several Lindsay Boys Among Returned Veterans on French Ship—One a Prisoner of War.

Another ship, the Louis Pasteur, of France, docked recently at Halifax loaded with Canadian soldiers, several of whom were from Lindsay. Most of the boys have been in the services five years, one was a prisoner of war and one was twice wounded. All witnessed stiff action in various theatres of war.

Mrs. Laverne Gamble, Queen St. has received word that her husband Pte. Laverne Gamble, will be home in the course of a few hours. He has arrived in Toronto where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Gamble, met him spending a short time with their son. Pte. Gamble was for some nine months a prisoner of war in Germany. He enlisted in Peterboro.
