

F. O. ARTHUR MENAUL IN PLANE THAT BAGS SUB IN ATLANTIC OCEAN

Lindsay is proud of her brave airmen who have recently become head-liners in our daily papers.

The latest story concerns Flying Officer Arthur Menaul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Menaul, Victoria Ave. N., who is mentioned in a dispatch relating to a recent encounter in the Atlantic with an enemy U-boat.

Menaul sighted one of these enemy craft almost at the same time as the senior officer who was at the controls and it was their good fortune to make a perfect attack, through rain and fog and enemy fire.

Some months ago, Menaul dropped a radio from a plane to survivors in a life boat, which was the means of their reaching safety. This was the first time this had ever been accomplished.

Art has a brother Harold in the R.C.A.F. out West and a sister, Evon, at home.
