

LINDSAY PRISONER OF WAR

HAS RETURNED TO ENGLAND

Mrs. Rita Frances Morin, of 10
Genevieve St. E., has just received word that her husband, S/Sgt. Edward Francis Morin, has been released from Stalag VII A Mooseburg, Bavaria and has been in England since May 1st

S/Sgt. Morin joined the Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry Highlanders in Peterborough in July, 1940. He went overseas early in 1941. S/Sgt. Morin returned home to Canada as an instructor in the King's Own Royal Rifles of Canada and trained men in Moosejaw, Sask., and also in Terras, British Columbia.

He volunteered as a paratrooper for the First Special Service Force, a combination of Canadian and American troops and trained at Helena, Montana, Burlington, Vermont, and also in Norfolk, Virginia. He was in the raid on the Aleutians and returned home for a short leave before going to Italy. S/Sgt. Morin was in Italy when taken prisoner on the 23rd day of May, 1944.
