

On The Main Street

With FORD MOYNES

July 12/72

Lindsay's fine stores, tourist accommodation and theatre are widely known. It is to be hoped that business men and places frequented by tourists will recognize this fact and will be fair in selling commodities and not "kill" the goose that lays the golden egg."

Now that the Academy Theatre six is "out of the red" and is backed by an Endowment Fund and now that the theatre has undergone a complete "face lifting," the powers that be" might consider installing an art gallery by adorning the walls in an historical manner with the pictures of such people as William Reonigk and Hi Meehan who were pioneers in theatricals and rebuilding, pictures of Lindsay's famous Pepper Twins and picture of Mae Edwards the Lindsay actress who established a name for herself in the State of Maine. The Pepper Twins who won International fame and John Meehan, the Lindsay actor, won success in the leading role of "The Man on the Box." There are probably others. This is one way to chronicle historical events in the old Academy Theatre. One way to perpetuate the the Academy is by establishing photographic records.

For the second time the Lindsay Boys Band will be guests at an international famous western event. What a great advertisement for the Town of Lindsay!

Thanks for the establishment of this popular band should include the name of bandmasters Shunk, Chenhall, and others. Definite thanks should go to the parents of boys in the past, as well as the present. Parents sacrificed time and money but they accomplished a great deal and still do. Orchids to the parents of bandsmen of the past and the present and success to the band in the coming tremendous competition.

It is seldom heralded in the headlines but it is a fact that Lindsay has one of the best lock system and "harbors" on the Trent Canal system. Nor is it generally known that the Lindsay harbor is visited many times by crafts from many distant points. Voyagers on the Trent system have discovered that Lindsay is a fine town to visit and they spend many shekels in Lindsay's fine stores.
