HOW TO FEED OUT ROOTS.

A root culture is greatly on the increase in this country, and many are trying their first experiments with them this winter.

At a printer's festival, recently, the following toast was offered: Woman—second only to the Press in the dissemination of news.

A young woman can have no excuse for thinking her lover wise and kind, for there is no nonsense in him, he is sure to talk to her.

DIRTY HANDS.—Charles Lamb once said to a brother whist-player, Martin Burchey, whose hands were noted for their cleanliness.

How do you feel with such a shocking coat on? said a young dandy to an old feller.

QUEEN FOR THE TEA TABLE.—Bake ripe quinces thoroughly, and when cold, strip off the skins.

A man called on a lawyer and began to relate the story of a certainrupt in his life.
