Mr. Layard stated, in Commons, in reply to nquiries, that an officer of the "Sumter" named Myers, accompanied by a Mr. Thompson of Cadiz, landed at Tangiers from a French merchant vessel, were arrested by U. S. Consul, who requested assistance of Moorish troops for the purpose. He was not aware of any press ure being put on the Moorish Government, and Mye:s and Thompson had since been released. Lord Palmerston, in response to inquiries, said the Government originally intended send ing much larger force to Canada than that de spatched, and it was only in consequence of epresentations from Colonial authorites that the number was reduced. He believed the confidence, vigor and power displayed had tended greatly to the peaceful solution of the difficulty with America.

The House of Commons adopted a resolu tion that colonies exercising the right of self government ought to undertake the responsibil ity of providing for their own internal security. Halliburton protested against the resolution as being ill-timed.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

CAPTURE OF BEAUFORT, N. C. THE PRIVATEER "NASHVILLE" BURNED.

Fort Mouro, March 23. The steamer "Chancellor Livingstone" arrived last night from Hatteras. Immediately after the occupation of Newbern, an expedition to Beaufort was started by Gen. Burnside. The place was, however, evacuated. Fort Macon was blown up by the rebels and the steamer "Nashville" burned. On the day General Burnside occupied Newbern, 1,600 rebel troops were on the road beween Goldsboro and Newbern. The "Swanee" sailed for Hatteras vesterday

Baltimore, March 23. Among the passengers who arrived by the Old Point boat to-day, are four deserters from the rebel army. They were made prisoners by the rebels last May at Cedar Keys, Florida. where they had gone in the schooner "Stag" to load with timber which was confiscated. The schooner was loaded with cotton, but was subsequently burned to escape a Federal cruiser. Compelled by necessity, they, the four men, enlisted in the 2nd Florida regiment last July. The regiment was ordered to Rich mond, where they arrived the day after the battle of Bull Run. They were finally sent to Yorktown, where they have been ever since: On Saturday last they succeeded in escaping in a small canoe and reached Fort Monroe. They state that Magruder's force around Yorktown is composed of about a dozen reginents, and that he has not over 6,000 fighting men, but at great Bethal and other points through the Peninsula, he has not less than 15.000. Some heavy guns are mounted near Yorktown. There are also fortifications three miles below Wyoming Creek.

During the first few weeks the force has been engaged in building easemates, but not of a very formidable character. Washington, March 23.
