ARRIVAL OF THE "JURA."

OPENING OF THE EXHIBITION.

INTERVENTION PROBABLE.

Father Point, May 13.

The Jura passed Father Point at two o'clock a. m., bringing 91 cabin, and 311 steerage passengers. The Hibernian arrived at Moville at four o'clock a. m. on the 2nd. The Jura passed the North American, off Gaspe, yesterday 12th.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Queen arrived at Balmoral yesterday.

Although the Queen's birth-day will not this year be celebrated by the usual festivities, her Majesty desires the the usual holiday may be observed on the 24th of May.

This morning's papers are filled with accounts of the opening of the Exhibition yesterday.

The opening of the great Exhibition in London was a perfect success.

The Times says the ceremonial was emphatically the grandest, best managed, and most imposing public pageant seen in this country for years. The building itself for extent, convenience, elevation, beauty of form, and charm of color, is described as far superior to that of Hyde Park. There are the same apparent labyrinths, and spreading vistas of courts, each a complete exhibition in itself, and worth a day's study. Whatever there was in '51 will be found ten-fold in '62.

Besides what there was in the old Exhibition there is the finest collection of English and foreign pictures ever got together in this metropolis.

The Paris correspondence of the Independance Belge asserts, in the most positive manner, that the projected intervention by France and England in the affairs of America, is confirmed. The South will be required to guarantee the emancipation of her slaves. The same authority states that a secret treaty exists between France and Spain, providing for the early abolition of Slavery in Cuba.

Interior Preparations.—The Paris Patrie learns that two English frigates leave on the 24th for Bermuda with ordnance and ammunition. The Patrie asserts that England is about to concentrate troops and war material at Bermuda.

ARRIVAL OF THE "ETNA."

THE FEELING IN PARIS ON THE AMERICAN WAR.

ANOTHER VESSEL FROM ENGLAND FOR A SOUTHERN PORT.

ARRIVAL OF CONFEDERATE AGENTS IN LIVERPOOL.

New York, May 12.

The steamship Etna arrived at 8 o'clock p.m., with dates from Queenstown of the 1st.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald writes:—A strong feeling is growing up here in favor of intervention in America. The impression is so powerful as to cause the easiness among the Northern party in Paris. It is believed that very serious overtures have been made by the French Cabinet to Palmerston, with a view to a joint action to put an end to the war, which, according to information received here, is as far from termination as ever.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News also gives a similar rumor, derived here from French and American sources, and says the two Governments are giving serious consideration to the question of intervention to terminate it.

The screw steamer Hero cleared from Hull for Nassau. She had sailed from Queenstown, it is believed, for some Southern port.

The West India mail steamer brought over several Confederates who ran the blockade. It is reported that their mission is to purchase warlike stores.

ARRIVAL OF THE "EDINBURGH."

New York, May 6.

The Edinburgh arrived at 6 o'clock this evening. She left Queenstown on the 24th ult.

The Times of the 24th ult. says, that the recent battle had no effect in creating the hope among the leading houses that the termination of the war was at hand. Shipments of gold were beginning to excite apprehension, and it would surprise no one to hear of a decree from Washington prohibiting the export of specie.

The Times announces the termination of its correspondence from the Potomac, and says that the President formally decided that Mr. Russell would not be permitted to avail himself of McClellan's invitation to accompany the army; that the Federal Government fears independent criticism; and that the troops were desirous of carrying with them a historian whom the world would believe. That Mr. Russell would have been received with joy in the rebel camp, but out of a scrupulous regard for confidential trust, and the fear of imputation that he would afford them useful information, he returned to England.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

THE PRIZE SHIP EMILY ST. PIERRE.

Minister Adams has presented a claim to the British Government for the restoration of the ship Emily St. Pierre, the Captain of which rose upon the prize crew and conveyed her to Liverpool, after her capture by the United States fleet for violating the blockade.—New York Tribune.

Norfolk, Sunday Morning.

The navy yard has been completely destroyed, together with a very large number of steamboats and other vessels. Numerous Union flags are flying in Portsmouth; the place is occupied by the 16th Massachusetts regiment. Gen. Viele, Military Governor, has established his head quarters in the Custom House, formerly occupied by Gen. Huger. The national flag was raised for the first time this morning, at 10 o'clock. The Monitor and Naugatuck have just arrived. A number of other vessels from the fleet are also coming up. The night was passed very quietly. At present everything is perfectly quiet, and order is entirely restored. All the public property is occupied.

Gen. Wool and Commodore Goldsboro have just arrived on the Baltimore.

The policy of the authorities here is to allow everything to go on with as little interruption as possible.

Forty two guns were found at Craney Island this morning by Capt. Case.

(Special to the Chicago Times.)

Cairo, May 12.—The steamer Meteor, from Pittsburg Landing, on Sunday morning, has arrived here.

There has been no regular engagement, although the situation of the two armies is much more threatening than at any previous time.

There has been several severe skirmishes, which, without producing any change, served to show the intention of the contesting forces.

It was definitely ascertained that so far from reports about evacuation of Corinth being true, the enemy is strengthening all his defences for the defeat of our army. Instead of abandoning entrenchments, an innumerable force of negroes are working, felling trees, forming abatis, and strengthening the earth works. It is now known that Gen. Lovell reached Corinth, bringing with him an army of thirty thousand men. It can no longer be a matter of doubt that Beauregard is preparing his army for a desperate struggle. Our reconnoitering parties invariably meet the enemy go where they will, and on hills and woods, along the roads, the rebels seem present in overpowering strength. Preparations for battle are being made on a grand scale. Roads are cut through the woods to facilitate the movements of the different divisions. Siege guns are mounted in great numbers, and nothing is wanting on our part to win the contest.

Secessionists in Fredericksburg say that the Capital of the Southern Confederacy has been temporarily removed to Danville, N. C.

McClellan telegraphs from Johnson's headquarters as follows:—

Williamsburg, May 6.

I have the pleasure to announce the occupation of this place as a result of a hard fought action yesterday. Hancock's brigade engagement had the effect to turn the right of the enemy's line of works—the enemy abandoned his entire line during the night, leaving all his sick and wounded in our hands. His loss yesterday was very severe. We have some 300 men wounded and more than 1,000 wounded prisoners; their loss heavy; our victory complete. I have sent cavalry in pursuit. The conduct of our men is excellent, with scarcely an exception. The enemy's works were extensive and exceedingly strong. Our loss in Hooker's division is heavy, but very little in other parts of the field. Hancock's success gained with a loss of not over 20 killed and wounded. We have other battles to fight before reaching Richmond.

The weather is good to-day, but there is great difficulty in getting up food on account of the roads. Very few waggons have yet come up. Am I authorized to follow the examples of other Generals and direct the names of battles to be placed on colors of regiments?

(Signed) GEO. B. McCLELLAN,
Major-Gen. Commanding.

THE MERRIMAC BLOWN UP.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT.

Fortress Monroe, May 11.

To Hon. J. H. Watson, Asst. Sec. of War.

The Merrimac was blown up by the rebels at two minutes before five o'clock this morning. She was on fire about three o'clock. The explosion took place at the time stated.

New Kent, C.H., Va., May 10, 3, p.m.

The pursuit of the retreating rebels by our troops under command of Gen. Stoneman has, in every respect, been successful. His head quarters are now here, twenty-seven miles from Richmond, the advance consisting of the 8th Illinois regiment is five miles ahead. The enemy's retreat has been most admirably accomplished, carrying almost everything with them in the shape of forage and provisions, the waggon trains in the day time and the troops at night. The enemy covered their retreat with a line of skirmishers stretched across the country driving in their stragglers at the point of the bayonet.

Flag Ship Benton, above Fort Pillow, Miss., May 10, via Cairo, May 11.

To Hon. Gideon Welles, Secretary Navy.

The naval engagement for which the rebels have been preparing took place this morning. The rebel fleet consisting of eight iron clad gunboats, four of which were fitted with rams came up handsomely. The action lasted one hour. Two of the rebel gunboats were blown up and one sunk, when the enemy retired under the guns of the Fort. Only two vessels were engaged on our side. The Cincinnati sustained some injury from the rams, but will be in fighting condition to-morrow.

FIRE KING SAFES ALL SAFE.

THREE of the Fire King Safes manufactured by the Duryee & Forsyth Manufacturing Co., Rochester, N. York, were in the late fire at Lindsay, and by the following certificates it will be seen that they have proved to be Fire-proof:—

Lindsay, Sept. 27, 1861.

This is to certify that I have had one of the Fire King Safes, manufactured by the Duryee & Forsyth Manufacturing Co., Rochester, N.Y., which Safe was in the great fire here July 5th, 1861, full of Books, Notes, &c., which came out perfect, after being in the fire for six hours.

(Signed.) Wm. KEWIN.

This is to certify that I had one of the Safes of the Manufactory of Duryee & Forsyth, which stood a very strong fire in a wooden building at the late conflagration here—contents, Books and Papers, were found afterwards in a good state of preservation.

R. LANG,
Mayor of Lindsay.
Lindsay, Sept. 28, 1861.

The above Certificates will show that Messrs. J. & J. Taylor, of Toronto, have made erroneous statements regarding the Duryee & Forsyth Safes. They say in their Advertisement that a Safe of Duryee & Forsyth's Manufactory proved worthless in the late fire at Lindsay, in the Store of John Healy. The Safe referred to is not of the manufactory of Duryee & Forsyth, and Messrs. J. & J. Taylor have not had the privilege of using Mr. Healy's name.

The community will see that our Safes are as reliable as J. & J. Taylor's, if not more so.

ALBION HOTEL,
MONTREAL.
L. W. DECKER, Proprietor.

IS pleasantly situated at the head of St. Paul Street, amongst the largest wholesale houses, in the city. It has (with business men generally, and especially with the best Merchants of both Provinces) become so great a favourite, that it is now acknowledged to be "THE Business Hotel of Montreal." To meet the extensive increase during the last year in the business of the house, the proprietor has built a large addition. The Dining-Room has been extended and made more commodious; there have been completed a new wing, a great number of well ventilated sleeping-rooms, and the House throughout has been refitted, and now contains many improvements and conveniences hitherto unknown to its guests. The whole of the beds have, at a great expense, been furnished with NEW SPRING MATTRESSES. The proprietor expects that by continuing his personal management of the concern, "The Albion," to say the least of it will continue to be, as it now is, the best Dollar and a Half Hotel in Canada. 1-tf
