Mr. Wm. Simpson the rater-color painter, has returned to England after a three years tour in India. He has not only penetrated to the very source of the Ganges in the Himalayas, crossing the highest of the snowy passes, 19,000 ft. above the sea, but even into Ladak, a region nearly unknown, where it is a custom and led to his grave, and there shot and buried with him, that he might "mount at the resurrection, and start to advantage." To the disgrace of all concerned, this was actually performed.—Court Journal.

DISTRESS IN LANCASHIRE-MEETING OF THE unemployed operatives, held in that city on Tuesday evening, at which resolutions were passed declaring the relief afforded by the poordaw gua dians to be totally inadequate to meet the existing distress, and condemning the labor test as "unjust in principle and cruel in its operation on the laboring classes." A deputation was appointed to wait upon the Mayor and the Board of Guardians, and it was deputation was appointed to wait upon the Mayor and the Board of Guardians, and it was announced that another meeting would shortly

PEMOVAL OF ANOTHER EMERICAN PUBLISHING House to London.—It is, we confess, with not a little regret we learn that to be publishing houses of this city, which have of late years removed their chief business to London, there is now to be added the enterprising from of Straham & Co., the publishers of Good Hords, and a late contains of the contemps of the contemp Words, and a large catalogue of volumes which stand high in general public estimation. Messes Strahan and Co. have secured extensive premises in which to conduct their great and growing business, and purpose removing at an early date. It is not necessary to say that Good Words, now the first periodical of its cause in Great Britain, will be contimed under its present able editorship, and that the additional facilities acquired by the publishers in having London as the basis of their operations, will secure to it with all their other valuable publications, a still more ex-
