

PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION!

FIRST ARRIVAL OF NEW FALL GOODS. BROUHAU & GIBSON have now received and opened out a beautiful selection of the NEWEST DRESS GOODS, SHAWLS, MANTLES, HATS, &c.

New Advertisements.

First Arrival of Fall Goods—Brouhau and Gibson. Crown Lands Department—And, Bassell. Farm for Sale—Joseph Gould.

LAW RESPECTING NEWSPAPERS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to receive their newspapers.

THE SERIALTY OF VICTORIA.

We learn that a petition has been got up by the leading and influential gentlemen of this county for presentation to his Excellency the Governor General, praying that Neil McDougall, Esq., the Provisional Wardep, be appointed to the office of High Sheriff of the County of Victoria.

SUPPOSED INFANTICIDE.

On the morning of Friday last part of the body of an infant was found on lot 11, 9th con. Opposite the front of Mr. Isaac W. Reid's farm.

TOWN COUNCIL.

Council met on Thursday night last. Present—The Mayor, and Couns. Browne, Deane, McCarthy, McNeil, Roche, Doherty, Thornhill and Bell.

POLICE COURT.

(Before G. M. Rogers and W. Thornhill, Esqs.) Town of Lindsay vs. Gore Gilchrist—Drunk. Fined $1 and costs, or 2 days in lock-up.

WOODVILLE.

The farmers are busy getting in their grain. The harvest is very late, and there are a number of fields quite green yet.

ENGLAND.

A book on "America," from the pen of Mr. W. H. Russell, is expected almost immediately.

IRELAND.

The Irish Times gives currency to a report to the effect that the Bishop of London will accept of the Primacy of Ireland, and that the See of London will be divided into two.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Vancouver's Island, June 1. The news from Cariboo and Stickeen (says the V. I. Colonist) is highly satisfactory.

CANADA AND LATEST NEWS.

ARRIVAL OF THE "ASIA." GARIBALDI DECLARED A REBEL. Halifax, September 3.—The steamship Asia from Liverpool on the 33rd Aug., via Queenstown on the 24th August, arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning.

ARRIVAL OF THE "NORWEGIAN."

Cape Race, Sept. 6.—The steamship Norwegian, from Liverpool on the 25th, via London on the 29th, passed this point en route to Quebec this Saturday evening.

WRECK OF THE "VERMONT" AT PORT MARGARA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

ARRIVAL OF THE "AUSTRALASIAN."

Cape Race, Sept. 8.—The Australasian, from Liverpool on the 30th and Queenstown on the 31st, arrived here on Sunday.

IRISHMEN NEARLY MURDERED BY DOMESTIC SERVANTS.

A NOBLEMAN NEARLY MURDERED BY DOMESTIC SERVANTS.—Sir Richard De Burgho was nearly murdered by his own servants on Thursday night. Returning with Lady De Burgho and a party of friends to his residence near Castle Connell from the parish theatricals at Limerick, he had to knock several times before he could gain admittance.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND. REJOICING OF THE INHABITANTS. GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON. BATON ROUGE EVACUATED. CINCINNATI THREATENED. THE CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC. FREDERICK OCCUPIED. MCCLELLAN TAKES COMMAND OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA. SURRENDER OF SPENCER.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

On Friday afternoon, the rebel pickets extended out as far as Newmarket, eight miles south-east of Frederick.

CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

The Federal pickets were withdrawn 16 miles from the same place.

CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The intelligence received here last night, and additionally confirmed this morning, of the occupation of Frederick City, Maryland, by the Southern forces, naturally excited much surprise, mingled with indignation and alarm.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

REJOICING OF THE INHABITANTS.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

BATON ROUGE EVACUATED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CINCINNATI THREATENED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

THE CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

On Friday afternoon, the rebel pickets extended out as far as Newmarket, eight miles south-east of Frederick.

FREDERICK OCCUPIED.

The Federal pickets were withdrawn 16 miles from the same place.

MCCLELLAN TAKES COMMAND OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

SURRENDER OF SPENCER.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

WRECK OF THE "VERMONT" AT PORT MARGARA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

REJOICING OF THE INHABITANTS.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

BATON ROUGE EVACUATED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CINCINNATI THREATENED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

THE CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

On Friday afternoon, the rebel pickets extended out as far as Newmarket, eight miles south-east of Frederick.

FREDERICK OCCUPIED.

The Federal pickets were withdrawn 16 miles from the same place.

MCCLELLAN TAKES COMMAND OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

SURRENDER OF SPENCER.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

WRECK OF THE "VERMONT" AT PORT MARGARA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

REJOICING OF THE INHABITANTS.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

BATON ROUGE EVACUATED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CINCINNATI THREATENED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

THE CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

On Friday afternoon, the rebel pickets extended out as far as Newmarket, eight miles south-east of Frederick.

FREDERICK OCCUPIED.

The Federal pickets were withdrawn 16 miles from the same place.

MCCLELLAN TAKES COMMAND OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

SURRENDER OF SPENCER.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

WRECK OF THE "VERMONT" AT PORT MARGARA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

REJOICING OF THE INHABITANTS.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

BATON ROUGE EVACUATED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CINCINNATI THREATENED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

THE CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

On Friday afternoon, the rebel pickets extended out as far as Newmarket, eight miles south-east of Frederick.

FREDERICK OCCUPIED.

The Federal pickets were withdrawn 16 miles from the same place.

MCCLELLAN TAKES COMMAND OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

SURRENDER OF SPENCER.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

WRECK OF THE "VERMONT" AT PORT MARGARA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CONFEDERATES ENTER MARYLAND.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

REJOICING OF THE INHABITANTS.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

BATON ROUGE EVACUATED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

CINCINNATI THREATENED.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

THE CONFEDERATES CROSS THE POTOMAC.

On Friday afternoon, the rebel pickets extended out as far as Newmarket, eight miles south-east of Frederick.

FREDERICK OCCUPIED.

The Federal pickets were withdrawn 16 miles from the same place.

MCCLELLAN TAKES COMMAND OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

SURRENDER OF SPENCER.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.

WRECK OF THE "VERMONT" AT PORT MARGARA.

Washington, Sept. 8.—An escaped prisoner who was in the hands of the rebels four days, says that all the Federal forces at Frederick fell back to Harper's Ferry, but before doing so had, on Thursday night, burnt the Hospital and Commissary stores, and removed the sick and wounded.