Peace and Plenty to this land;
to others they have been denied,
Withheld, by His Almighty hand. The very hearth-stones stained with blood In others, scatcity is rife, And thousands calling out for food.

The tide of war we cannot stay. Dut trust to God to make an end; But to the starving poor, all they. Who plenty have, a gift should send.

Then let us all—because 'tis right—
To this good cause devote a part luissing God will accept the smallest mite.

If given with a thankful heart.

Let rich men give what they think best; Let poor men, too, their portion share,
Though it be smaller than the rest.

PROSPECTUS

The "Montreal Witness." FOR 1863.

TT is now seventeen years since the first I number of this paper was issued, and during the whole of that time the original intention in commencing it has been kept in view, namely; to supply wholesome literature to the people in a cheap and interesting form, and to testify in favor of all that is good, and against all that is evil, in the current affairs of the times. The commercial element, however, grew into greater prominence han was contemplated, and has been the means of ittroducing the "Witness" into many other quarten which it would not otherwise have reached, For eleven years the "Witness" was issued as a weekly; but when a liberal Government offered to carry newspapers free, it appeared necessary to make a corresponding advance in liberality on the part of the press, and it was issued twice-a-week at the same price as before. The sole equivalent for this double value being—cash strictly in advance : so as to save the expense of keeping acounts and collecting.

One year later a weekly edition was added; but it has not secured any considerable circulations most readers preferring the semi-weekly. Two years ago last summer, a daily edition was com-menced, which has since grown into a very exten-sive circulation, chiefly in the city of Montreal. Such has been the progress of the "Witness" to its present position, which, we believe, stands second in the united Prevince for the number of copies issued weekly.

With the coming New Year we mean to enlarge the Sen i-Weekly edition considerably, so as to contain most of the reading matter that appears in the Daily, which we hope will also increase in size during the year, as it has continued to do. The price of the Semi-Weekly will remain as at present, $2,—or equal to $1 for a weekly issue; and that of the weekly, enlarged in the same proportion, will continue as new, $1 50—this price for a paper of 12 pages being just in proportion to that of the Semi-Weekly, which contains 16 pages a

The Paily edition, at $3. is still cheaper in pro portion, and is recommended especially to all mer-portion, and is recommended especially to all mer-chants who require to know the course of the mar-kets. It contains a great amount of daily informa-tion about business, only part of which can go into the Semi-Weekly. A special early addition of the Daily is prepared for the mail to the Eastern Town-ships.

ships, where we hope it will be extensively sup-The Daily Witness circulates, at present, between 5,001 and 6,000 copies; and the Semi-Weekly somewhat less than 5,000. These large figures—which we hope to see much increased for the coming year—should be sufficient indicement to attract the liberal patronage of advertisers; and the charges will be found exceedingly moderate when rockened in proportion to the sumbers issued, as no one would expect to have 5,000 hand-bills printed and circulated at the same cost as 500. The increased size of the Semi-Weekly Witness will afferd a little additional advertising space, which is especially valuable to advertisers on newhich is especially valuable to advertisers on necount of the large number of country merchants who take that edition for its commercial articles. The terms of the Witness are cash in advance for had. Apply at the Office of this paper. The terms of the Witness are each in advance for all the editions, the only terms upon which a paper can be firmished so chearly, and we can make no engaptions even in favor of our just or wealthiest friends; for the object of the cash system is to save the expense of keeping accounts and collecting. When the term subscribed for express, the paper is the effort discontinued, unless the subscription be previously renewed. We wish all to distinctly understand that there is nothing personal or invidious in stopping the paper when the term subscribed for expires, as this is the uniform rule carried out by our publishing stiff without exceptions.

The above Certificates will show that Messrs. J & J. Taylor, of Toronto, have made erroneous statements regarding the Duryee & Forsyth Safes. The Safe referred to is not of the manufactory of Duryee & Forsyth, and Messrs. J. & J. Taylor have not had the privilege of using Mr. Healy's name.
