punishment of criminals engaged in scaling sevile insurrection. In its political aspect, this measure possesses great signification, and to it in this light I would invite your attention. It allords to our people the complete and crowning proof of the true unture of the designs of the purty which elevated to power the present occupant of the Presidential chair at Washington, and which sought to conceas its numpers by every variety of artful grace, and by the periidious use of the most solemn pledges on every practical occusion.

He gives extracts from President Lincoln's inaugusel, and comments fully on the subsequent acts of Congress and the administration. He argues the enactment of a law to hasten the refunding of the outstanding Treasury notes, fixing the ultimate period for this purpose not later than 1st of July next, so us to effect the withdrawal of notes issued prior to the first of last December. If to this be added a revenue from adequate taxation, and a negotiation of bonds guaranteed by the several States, as has been already generously proposed by some of them, there is little doubt that we shall see our finances restored to a sound and satisfactory condition. It is true, at the close of the war our debt will be large, but it will be due to our own people, and neither the interest nor capital will be exported to distant countries, impoverishing ours for their, benefit. He merely calls attention to the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, and asks proper legislation on the subject of the finances.

In conclusion, he says the energies of a whole nation have accomplished marvels, and

In conclusion, he says the energies of a whole nation have accomplished marvels, and our trials have been converted into blessings, and then winds up with a prayer for the restoration of peace and its blessings.

Mr. Slidell has had another audience with the Emperor of the French, and has communi-cated to him some very important despatches which he recently received from Mr. Jefferson

THE ALABAMA STATE DEBT.—The Mobile Register of Sunday says:—A British war steamer is expected to arrive in our bay to-day, the object of her late visit being to communicate to the British Consul, and to receive the interest on the Alabama State debt due to foreign bondholders. The amount is £40,000 the late I JAMES GRIMES, of the Townsmir of Manufecture that, at the next Session of the Provincial Parliament, she intends to apply for an Act enabling her to sell certain Real Estate of her said late husband, for the payment of his debts and support of the interest of the said late husband, for the payment of his debts and support of the said late husband, for the payment of his debts and support of the said late. THE ALABAMA STATE DEBT .- The Mobile foreign bondholders. The amount is £40,000 sterling, and is ready for payment in gold.

TORIES QUARRELING .- The Toronto correspondent of the Montreal Herald says :-

"The Moderates, Coalitionists, Corruptionists, or whatever will designate the late ministerial party, are to all appearances still utterly disorganized. As a party they have committed political suicide. John A. Macdonald and John Hillyard Cameron are at dagger's points. In private life, a long pending fend, and in politics, a jealousy of each other, will not permit them to act in harmony. Separated, both are powerless, but even were they united, their followers would be too few to accomplish much in the way of practical opposition."
