BURNING OF STEAMERS ON THE

Incendiaries are reported to have been hard at work, destroying steamers on the Mississip pi, the efforts having been so far successfu hat a number of valuable vessels and many lives have been sacrificed. ### EARL RUSSELL ON AMERICAN AFFAIRS.

Earl Russell has made a speech on foreign affairs at Blair Gower in Scotland He referred at considerable length to the American question, and justified England in recognizing the Confederates as belligerents and answered some of the imputations brought by the people of the North, particularly the speech of Senator Summer. He also replied to the complaint of the South in regard to the recognition of the blockade, and asserted that although selfinterest demanded that England should break it she prefered the course of honor, as it would have been infamous to break it. He showed that the government had not sufficient evidence against the Alabama to detain her until after she sailed, and explained the difficulties in the way of interference with such cases. He drew a line between ordinary vessels equipped for war purposes and steam rams which are in themselves formed for acts of defence and might be used without ever touching Confe erate shores. He asserted that the Government was ready to do everything the duties of neutrality recognized-everything that is just to a friendly nation, such as they would wish done to themselves, but would not yield one jot to the menace of foreign Powers. He complimented the Federal Government and Mr. Seward upon the fairness with which they have discussed the matters of difference, but said there were others, including Senator Sumner, who had acted differently. He denounced the efforts of those who sought to create trouble between America and Europe, and with expressions of friendship towards America. He asserted that all his efforts would be to maintain peace. Speaking of Poland, he defended England's position, and remonstrated against that of Itussia, but did not think England should go to war on the subject.

Earl Russell's speech has created a feeling of great satisfaction at Quebec.

The altar has been Mr. Buchauan's malignity, the sacrifice has been Hamilton's inlignity, the sacrifice has been Hamilton's interests, the high priest has been Isaac himself, and the fire has been the opposing votes which he has obtained through his factiousness and himself, all New Goods, remember. violence. - Hamilton Times.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET IN NEWYORK .- FOR the first time in many years the citizens of New York may see a sight in the waters of our noble bay, the like of which there is but too much reason to fear may be more familiar to us in the future than it has been in the past. A foreign fleet of proportions more than respectable is now rapidly assembling in our waters, and within the next few days the friend.
