THE BIRLS CHRISTIANS,-The Rev. G. Co. well, Bible Christian minister, of Peterbo C.W., has given in the Christian Guardi a sketch of that denomination. It original in Cornwall, England. A local preacher of the name of O'Bryan, somewhere about 1812, visited a number of parishes in that county, where his labors were much blessed. He rmed a number of societies, which were reformed a number of societies, which were re-ceived into the Wesleyan Church. Mr. O's Bryan then sought ordination, but it was re-fused, on the ground that he was a married man. He separated from the body, and com-menced to preach the Gospel without ordina-tion, supporting himself, and suffering great persocution. He formed societies, which rapid-ly increased. At the present time, the statis-ties of the denomination are as follows:—Itin-

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS. -The tenth annual session of the Grand Temple of the Independent Order of Good Temp-lars was held last week in Toronto. About one hundred delegates were in attendance, and credentials were handed in from one hundred and sixty delegates and visitors. Mr. John McWhinnie, G. W. C., presided. Mr. J. W. Fergusson, Grand Worthy Secretary, read the annual report, from which it appeared that since last session the Order had been introduced in the Island of Prince Edward, and it was believed had accomplished there a good work. Several new temples had been introduced in Eastern Canada with good results. Some nine new temples were stated to have been instituted in and around Toronto since hast session. It also appeared that financial is the society was in a prosperous condition, the net balance of each on hand being $1,372, the net balance of eash on hand being $1,372, 254. The duties of the Secretary appear to have been arduous, he having written no less than seven thousand letters during the past year. Twenty-seven deaths were reported in the order last year, 789 members withdrew from the order 1,029 were expelled; 190 withdrew by card; and 2,524 were initiated. The number of adult members at the date of the report was 12,046, of whom there were, female members, 4017, and male members, 8,029. The number of members of the Band of Hope was 4,673; thus siving, as the grand total of was 4,673; thus giving, as the grand total of members of this Society, 16,719. The report, which was lengthy and carefully prepared, was adopted.—Weekly Visitor:

SECESH PLOT!

The Government are now actively engaged in endeavouring to ascertain the facts concerning the conspiracy alleged to have been framed in Canada, for the double purpose of releasing the Confederate prisoners confined upon Johnson's Island, and of committing ravages upon certain American lake ports.—

How far the arrangement in the plot had approached completion, is still a point in dispute. Allegations respecting it were present. releasing the Confederate prisoners confined ed in such a shape to the officers of the Crown, that they could not be safely disregarded, no matter how small or how large the decount of the Produce Business to J. Dougall) gree of belief entertained in their truth. The position the Canadian Executive holds with regard to intercolonial questions is an important ince, but a duty to an Empire as a whole.

An indiscrect act on their part, an unwillingness to take measures to preserve the neutrality which the Home Government has adopted, might give rise to a casus belli, and wrap the one. They owe not only a duty to the Provmight give rise to a casus belli, and wrap the world in flames. There is, fortunately, on the part of the present Executive, no such unwillingness. The duty of the Executive was perfeetly simple and plain, and they discharged it with promptitude. Lord Lyons was warned of the facts which were reported, and our Covernment at once set the proper machinery to work to ascertain to what extent the reports were true, and to what length the arrangements of the conspirators had been carried.

The story of the design entertained, so far ns it has become public, is plausible enough.

Large sized propellers are constantly engaged while navigation lasts in trading between Ogdensburg and ports of the upper lakes. Arms, it is said were to be placed on board one or more of these boats, under the denomination of "suttlers' goods," procured, not from Canada, but from sympathisers in the State of New York, and were to be shipped at Ogdensburg itself. Southerners, in parties of threes and fours, to avoid suspicion, were to gather in the neighbourhood of the west end of the Welland Canal. Others were to get on board at Prescott, and after having passed the canal, were to take possession of the boat. Heing joined by their companions at some convenient port on Lake Krie, they were to release the prisoners on Johnson's Island, and, having armed them with the "sattlers' goods, were to burn Huffalo, and do various other works of mischief. Whether they counted upon running a long race or not, we do not know. We scarcely suppose they did, but they may have believed that they could accom-plish much mischief, and have returned in safety to our shores. About the scheme, so far as the science of the steamboat, the release of the prisoners, and an attack upon one or two undefended lake parts, is concerned, there is nothing impossible in it to during men. The last thing the master of a freight steamer upon our lakes would think of, would be the capture of his vessel by emissaries of Jeff. Davis; consequently he would be entirely unprepared for anything of the sort. And most certainly, the Hulfalonians would have been surprised. had a vessel, hoisting the Southern flag, sud dealy appeared in their harbour. Under such circumstances, a very great deal of mischiel might have been done long before any effect tive check could have been placed upon the

The Southern refugees residing in Canada have, we think, met with as good treatment as they can desire. For the cause which they in some sort represent, sympathy is undoubt-edly felt by a certain class of our population. that whatever the Southern refugees may do, this at least is clear, that Canada is free from all complicity in the matter. The prompt response of our traverament furnishes the caution.
