THE CANADIAN QUARTERLY REVIEW.

Hamilton, Geo. D. Griffin, Editor and Proprietor, $1.00 per year.

A few days ago we accidentally came across the April number of this highly interesting publication. Up to that time we were not aware of the existence of the Review; and believing that it is well worth, and should give an extensive circulation, we shall give our readers the table of contents, so that they may, to some extent, see the character of this new quarterly.—Post-Office of Canadian Banks; National Currency; The Glove and Protection; Canadian Militia System; Hon. Isaac Arthur Williams; Cure for Stammering; A Brave girl; Margaret Lever; The Little Strawberry Girl; An Affectionate scene; The Management of Money; Bad Company; The Key of Heaven and Hell; King Olaf of Norway; The Human Mind; Fate of a Duelist; and a quantity of Poetry.

The Review is a model of typographical neatness, and the price ($1.00) places it within the reach of everyone. We should like to exchange, and the Editor would very much oblige by forwarding us the back numbers.

We are in receipt of the Toronto EVENING JOURNAL, A. H. St. Germain, Editor and Proprietor. We are glad to notice that the Journal is permanently established as the third daily paper in the city of Toronto. It is well conducted, has a large circulation, and its views of political and other matters are spirited and prudent. We wish our country every success, and will be glad to exchange.

The MAGAZINE of Aarion's Home

MAGAZINE should have been noticed a couple of weeks ago. The illustrations, Fashion Plates, and reading matter in this Magazine are all of a high character; and its price ($2.00) is so low as to place it within the reach of everyone. We could wish to see it more regularly.

A SERIES OF TERRIBLE BATTLES!

The past week has been pregnant with great events at the seat of war. For ten days the contending armies have fought a series of bloody battles with immense slaughter on both sides. The Federals have the best of it. Wednesday's despatches announce that Lee is encroaching. Grant was occupying a position near Spotsylvania owing to the impassable state of the roads, and also to give his men a little rest.

The following are the latest items of interest:

New York, May 17.—The World learns that large reinforcements have gone to Butler, and his forces amounts to 60,000 men, divided into three forces, one menacing Petersburg and keeping the rebel troops there; another besieging Fort Darling; and the third, larger than the others, marching on Richmond.

Prominent officers predicted that the city would be ours by the 18th.

New York, May 17.—The Herald's Washington special of the 16th says Grant had eve' ything in readiness last night for an early start to-day, and there is no doubt another severe fight will soon occur.

Lee has been massing his troops on his right, and the engagement when it occurs will take place near Spotsylvania Court House.

Captured officers predicted that the city would be ours by the 18th.
