Portry. THE NEW-MOON HAY. When swallows dart from cottages eaves, And the drowsy hum of barley sheaves; was defined only by Canada, it would answer the purpose of the Americans to make a raid into the Province at the cost of a war which would bring the British navy to their coasts.

Our business, however, is not what it might be, but what it is with possibilities and with facts. It is true the fruit and cereals we have sent for prize exhibition to London have been awarded the highest prize; structure, which shall say under a given date—do this or that to-day; at least were such an almanac prepared, it would scarcely be of more value than those which profess to predict the state of the weather.

EDITING A PAPER. Making a paper is a very pleasant business. If it contains too much political matter people won't have it.

Business Cards. CAMERON & ORDE, BARRISTERS & ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Solicitors and Conveyancers, &c., &c. LINDSAY.

Business Cards. BOYNTON'S HOTEL. GATE STREET, LINDSAY. WM. Our iron manufacture is yet in its infancy, though there are at least a dozen iron foundries in the Province; and the quantity of iron smelted in 1861 was 1,200 tons, valued at $80 a ton.

At the Castle of Exeter, on Monday, before A. H. Hamilton, Esq., and J. W. Sillifant, Esq., John Muters was charged with stealing thirteen silver teaspoons, two pairs of sugar-tongs, and other things, the property of his master, John Finewell, and also with eloping with Mr. Finewell's wife, Prosecutor, on being examined, said he was a clergyman of Mount Radford.

MARRIAGE. Marriage is to a woman at once the happiest and saddest event of her life. It is the promise of future bliss raised on the death of present enjoyment.

Miscellaneous. THE DEFENCE OF CANADA. From the Times, August 12. It is always good for people to understand each other, and just at this juncture the establishment of such an intelligence between the Canadians and ourselves may be of great service to both parties together.

THE PROVINCES OF NOVA SCOTIA. (From the Halifax Evening Express). The life of an individual is generally considered an almost unappreciable fraction compared with the life of a country.

PEACE, EVEN IF CANADA BE INVADIED. For the twentieth time we ask, can nothing be done? It must be admitted that reconciliation, supposing it to be possible, is not without some serious ulterior possibilities.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF SUNDAY IN CHICAGO. A despatch to the Rochester Democrat, dated Sunday afternoon, 22nd says:— One hundred thousand oxen have been taken to Chicago, and are being driven by a blazing brand under each horse's tail, to rear, bellow and trample underfoot.

THE ALLEGED DEATHS OF NEGROES AT FORT PILLow. You must know that most of Fort's men are from Western Tennessee, Tennessee. Through the benevolence of the countess through which Sturgis and his troops were advanced to Fort Pillow, the negroes were accommodated to scenes of violence and bloodshed.
