A communication appeared in those col-umns two weeks ago, pointing out the neces-sity, and orging the establishment of, a Reading Room. "It is undeniable that such a place of resort, during the long winter evenings especially, would be a great convehience, as well, as a source of pleasure and I roffe a but hwing to the doubtful character the undertaking, in a pecuniary point of lew, it is difficult to get any one to embark in it. In order, however, to supply an apparent want the proprietor of the Post has cluded to make an effort, providing sufficient encouragement is given, to establish a Reading Room in which will be found the leading journals, and periodicals of Canada, the United States and Great Britain, As soon as a ruitable room is secured a subscription list will be sirculated for the names of subscribers; and on the number of names obtained will depend the result.

Our correspondent suggested that Town Council should be asked to aid by the tant of a sum of money. As far as we are concerned we would prefer starting on a commercial basis-otherwise, not at all. In can easily be escertained whether a suffitient number of our townspeople are willing a patronize a Reading Room to justify a commencement; if there are not a sufficient number interested in the matter, why there is no harm done, no bagnolai sac

Dinner having been duly considered, Mr. Hodgson, in response to frequent calls, took the floor. He thought that on an occasion like this a free exchange of sentiment and experience among the farmers present would be a fitting and suitable conclusion to the days proce ings. In general terms he noticed the advancement made by the township of Maripose within the past twenty years-the improvement in the quality of all kinds of stock, and the better cultivat ion of the soil.

Mr. Metherill, President of the County Agricultural Society, was the next speaker. He gave at some length his impression of the late Hamilton Show, and expressed his pleasure at meeting so many of his brother far-

Sm-I notice the above "effusion" as the he heading of Mr. Bealfe advertise occupied by James Marks, Eeq., senr., Pre- Parsons, Tohnny Lumpkins, and Mr. Beall and t of the society, supported on the right his wares. I am at a loss to discover. tainly the people of Lindsay will not admire think of his goods, neither will they apprec chasing in his line of business. These people will naturally be led to enquire after reading Mr Beall's poetical selection, what is to be infer from Tehnny Lumpkins' postical effusion with regard to Mr. Beall's " goods and chattels? Will they not arrive at the conclusion that be cause poor Lumpkins shot far wide of the mark, therefore Mr. Beall is just as wide of the mark as poor Tohnny, in his endeavours to persuade the" people of Lindsay and vicinity" that his wares are superior to others. But it may be that Mr. Beall did not intend any such connect but was rather imitating the style of advertising dopted by " Quacks," when one of them, for example, after treating you to some very startling information suddenly concludes with a culogy on "Bryon's Pulmonic Wafers." Mr. Beall surely does not wish as to jufer that his wares are to be classed with the wafers, that is, as humbuge. But if, thirdly, Mr. Beall was indulging in a little spleen against the Methodists "people of Lindsay and vicinity" will look with the same degree of pity on Mr Beall as, beyond doubt, all sensible persons, looking on his distinguished predecessor Lumpkins.

COUNTY FALL SHOW.

On Friday last the Fall Show organized and held under the auspices of the County of Victoria Agricultural Society, took place at the Town Hall, Lindsay: and considering the extremely muddy state of the roads leading from prominent townships, consequent upon the rainy weather of previous days, and the threatening appearance of the show the 5th con., opposite lots 21 and 32—J. and the threatening appearance of the show Aged Ram, [imported within 30 days of show] Hodgson, and J. S. Davidson, Esqs., Com- day, the attendance was large, and the entries, while fully up to the average number, were particularly noticeable for improved appearance and genuine worth. The first department regulated by the prize list was that for horses, and in it there was pretty keen competition. Mr. McQuade, of Emily, exhibited a brood mare which took the first prize : Mr. John Cullis also exhibited a sound, healthy span of draught horses, which were admired for their strength and symetry; they took the first prize. Jackson, of Woodville, carried away the first prize for the best horse in eachile or single harness. The number of entries this year was 24 in excess of 1863. The show of Cattle, if not large, was truly excellent. Messrs. Metherill, Johnson and Macdonald had a number of animals on the ground, and each of them carried away several prizes, Entries same as last year,

The next noticeable feature was the department for sheep. Here the townships of Mariposa and Emily shone supreme-Messrs. Thorn, Mark Metherill, Johnson and Wallis being the chief exhibitors. Mr. Metheril showed some sheep (Leicester breed) which attracted a good deal of attention ; and a fine aged Cotswold Ram, lately purchased by Mr. J. H. Hopkins, was highly eulogised. The truth is that the sheep displayed on Friday were most creditable, and were an honor to the County. Entries 33 against 24

The entries of Swine were 17 against 2 ast year. We understand the show was very good. Messrs. Blackwell, Hopkins, Cullis and Gibb were the principal exhibitors. An immense hoz, the property of Mr. Gibb, attracted a good deal of notice, and took the prize of $5 as being the largest on

In fruit, grain and vegetables there was an average show. Mr. John Gibb, Ops, Mr. Metherill, Mariposa, and Mr. McQuade, and all took prizes. Mr. R. F. Whiteside exhibited a very good sample of hand scutched son the show of roots and vegetables was surprising. Mr. Knowlson, Omemee, displayed mammoth parsneps, and magnificent eads of celery. Mr. James Ellis took the prize for the best variety of vegetables : and Mr. Hoover exhibited the finest potatoes. The entries of roots and vegetables were 61 against 34 last year.

There was a very small show of implements. Messrs. Treval & Dobson showed a substantially manufactured scuffler and plough; and the same firm took a prize for The liabilities of the Leeds Banking Com- a neatly executed iron looking glass frame. William street, Mr. Richard Dark was awarded the first prize for a strong, well finished lumber wagon. Messrs. Kells & Lovel! displayed a set of carriage harness upon which a good deal of taste, and a large mount of labor had been expended. Several pieces of Furniture exhibited by Mr. Holtorf were admired by every one who saw them, well as a choice assortment of fancy Hardare exhibited by Messrs. Drake and Foley. ty of Mr. Thomas Foley, of Lindsay-a good specimen of the bird preserver's art.

The proceeds of the sale of tickets for adission into the Hall was $52 40. Before cencluding we must not omit mentioning that a good deal of the eclat which attended the last show is due to the munificent liberality of the merchants and others of Lindsay who contributed $179 (including the aum of $20 from the town Corporation) making in all $199 to swell the prize list of the Society Late in the afternoon about 40 gentle few of them farmers, eat down to a sumptuous dinner provided by mine hostess of the "Jewett House."
