Capital $2,000,000 in $40,000 Shares of $50 each HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA WEST.

The Royal Canadian Bank, for which a charter was obtained during the last Session of Parliament, is intended to supply a want that has so long been felt by many who had occasion from time to time, to apply for Bank accommodation. Toronto and the surrounding country have increased in wealth and population with great rapidity, yet the Banking Capital is very little. if at all, in excess of what was ten years ago, so that the amount of Capital really necessary to supply the increase of business is, in fact, wanting -and as this want is also sensibly felt in other parts of Canada, and more particularly in Upper Canada, it is believed that a new Bank is not only required, but will receive a generous support. At certain times a very large amount of the Temperance Act. money is required to facilitate the exportation of Produce, Lumber and other commodities, a much larger amount than it is in the power of the existing Banks to supply, and as this ahad, the Banks are compelled, in order to fur- Benjamin Jacobs nish it, to withdraw a portion of their Capital Allen McLauchlin from the general business of the country in George McNabb which it is employed, to the great detriment of James McNabb Farmers, Manufacturers and others; men, who Donis M.
