At the present time there is a steady and constantly increasing tide of emigration flowing from the United States into the Canadas. As time passes the number of these emigrants will be largely increased, for every month that now passes will make this country less desirable as a residence, and any other a place of refuge from conscription, debt and financial ruin. The annual interest upon the indebtedness of both our northern and southern states at the present time cannot be less than $300,000,000. Enormous as is this load, it is hourly growing larger with a rapidity that is appalling. The result can easily be forseen. It is a bankruptey of both section, to escape which every man who can, will leave the country, and as Canada is the nearest foreign soil, and posessed of a high civilization, it is the point at which will naturally centre all emigration. Now that the re-election of Mr. Lincoln bids fair to give us four more years of war, there are fewer reasons than ever why men who can get away should remain here longer. To stay here is to brave a conscription which must soon become universal and to be lost in a contest whose vortex is swallowing the life, wealth and reputation of the nation. In Canada there are none of these misfortunes; there may be less liberty than there was in this country a few year ssince, but there is at least immunity from the officers of the conscription, from being dragged to an unwilling and useless death on the battle field, and from the sure financial ruin which in time must overtake every citizens of both sections of this unhappy country. Such will be the reasoning of vast numbers of our people, and the consequence will be that the next four years will witness an emigration to the British provinces of thousands of citizens of the United States. Vast numbers of them disgusted with the evident incapacity of the people for self government as shown by the FARMERS' GROCERY! occurrencies of the last few years, will gladly place themselves under the ægis of a power which is removed from the influence and tamperings of demagogues. They will invest in property in that country, will become identified with its interests, and in a little while will loose all regard for the land of their nativity save to wonder how a people so powerful could be driven to commit suicide, by a few unscrupulous fanatics. Thus the Canadas would receive vast additions of a hardy, intelligent people, who, in times of peace, will bring their ingenuity and industry to the work of developing the material interests of that country, and who, in time of war, will constitute a fighting element, whose excellence is second to none in existence. With this addition to their population, and new form of government which they are about to adopt, the British provinces, as a confederation, will take the lead in wealth, enterprise and power on the west-

THE ENGLISH PRESS ON THE CAP-TURE OF THE FLORIDA.

The London Times in its city article says that advices frem New York with regard to the mode in which the Washington government have received the news of the capture of the Confederate steamer Florida are awaiting with the greatest interest, by the mercantile as well as the political world. One reason for the importance attributed to these advices consists in the inference that TO BE SOLD CHEAP, FOR CASH ONLY if the affair be palliated or endorsed by Lincoln's government, it will henceforth entirely extinguish any power on the part of the United Sta'es to assail by privateers the commence of any nation with which they may be at war, since the precedent will will establish a claim to the right to pursue and destroy any such vessel, whatever may be the port in which she may seek shelter or supplies.

Under the influence of the details of the capture of the Confederate steamer Florida the official Brazillian correspondence about which has been published, the English jour- | Lindsay, May 5, 1864. nals indignantly denounce the affair.

The London Times says the act was most flagrantly lawless, and persumes that the American government and its citizens will hasten to repudiate it, and that the New York Chamber of Commerce will scruple to forfest its character by rewarding or justify- TOWNSHIP OF MARA, CO. ONTARIO ing the crime committed.

The London Morning Post thinks that the Federal Government will disown the THREE SAW MILLS AND A GRIST MILL. act, but has some misgivings about it. It thinks that the outrage cannot be permitted to pass unnoticed by other powers, and that all the maratine powers should enter a protest against it. The Telegraph thinks that the unlawful seizure of the Florida will cause unlimited suisfaction in New York, although at the expense of the loss of material honor. The Herald believes that events such as these will speedily force European nations to interfere in the American difficulties for their own security.

The Daily News has nothing to say about the matter, and the Star is silent in regard to it.
