A Grand Old Poem. Who shall judge a man from manners, Who shall know him by his dress? Paupers may be fit for princes, Princes fit for something less Crumpled shirt and dirty jacket

May beclothe the golden ore Of the deepest thoughts and feelings— Satin vests could do no more. There are springs of crystal nectar, Ever welling out of stone; There are purple buds and golden, Hidden, crushed and overgrown; God, who counts by souls, not dresses,

Loves and prospers you and me; While he values thrones the highest, But as pebbles in the sea. Man, upraised above his fellows, Oft forgets his fellows then; Masters, rulers, lords, remember That your meanest hinds are men; Men by labor, men by feeling, Men by thought and men by fame, Claiming equal right to sunshine,

In a man's ennobling name. There are foam-embroidered oceans, There are little weed-clad rills, There are feeble inch-high saplings, There are cedars on the hills: God, who counts by souls not stations, Loves and prospers you and me, For to Him, all vain distinctions

Are as pebbles in the sea. T oiling bands alone are builders Of a nation's wealth or fame, Titled laziness is pensioned, Fed and fattened on the same By the sweat of other's forheads, Living only to rejoice,

While the poor man's outraged freedom Vainly lifted up its voice. Truth and justice are eternal, Born with loveliness and light. Secret wrongs shall never prosper, While there is a sunny right; God, whose world-heard voice is singing Boundless love to you and me, Sinks oppression with its titles.

As the pebbles in the sea.

Hon. Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly. In releasing you, for the present, from further attendance in Parliament, I believe that I am able to congratulate you upon having laid the foundation for a more intimate union of Her Majesty's possessions of British North America, I am also happy to think that the course which you have adopted has been calculated to prove the sincerity and earnestness with which you adhere to the policy of Her Majesty, in relation to foreign countries, and your readiness to pass any measures which may be found necessary for the enforcement of that policy

SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

It will be well for Catholics to understand at once that they can count for no sympathy from Conservatives in the fresh agitation they are raising in reference to Separate Schools. Hitherto many Conservative journais—the Reporter among others—have stood the brunt of the battle on what they considered the rights of their Catholic fellowcitizens in Upper Canada, and have in a measure opposed the teachings of their own sects in doing so. But we must candidly confess that we are getting tired of this never-ending Separate School agitation. When the last Bill—popularly known as "Scott's Bill"—was passed during the reign of the last Reform Administration, it was urged by its supporters that it was to be a finality, and that the Catholics of Upper Canada would be content with the Bill. Since this date two years have not passed, and yet already a fresh agitation on the matter has sprung up, and the leading dignitaries of the Catholic Church are already endeavoring to prove that they did not accept Mr. Scott's Bill as a finality, thus paving the way for a fresh opening of the entire question.

It will be well if the Conservative press throughout the whole of Upper Canada speak out plainly upon this question. Let the dif-culty be met at the outset. Let us inform this fresh Separate School agitation. Let us remind them that we have been willing hitherto to treat with them as men entitled to every privilege that we ourselves enjoy or could ask; that we have believed in the justice of their demands; and that we worked to secure for them the same boon in Upin the Lower Provinces. But we would also hint to them that we are not disposed to follow them in all their demands; that we consider the present agitation most unnecessary and unwise; and if they wish to retain for themselves the good will of either of the The Fire Premiums received by this Company during the year 1863 exceed those of any other Company in Great Britain by £200,000 Sterling.

A MARKED CHANGE. - The total amount of duties received during the months of January and February at the six principal ports of the Province, shows a very marked decrease as compared with the corresponding months of last year. The figures stand thus: -1864, $665,053; 1865, $458,774;—decrease, $206,278—showing a decline of thirty-one per cent. during the first two months of this year. The port of Quebec gives $39,288 against $61,283 for correspording months of 1864, being a decrease of thirty-six per cent. Montreal yields $332, 250 against$476,666 for corresponding months of 1864, being a decrease of thirty-two per cent.—Kingston shows a decrease of only twenty per cent., the amounts being $6,393 At three o'clock, on Saturday, His Ex- $7,946 for same period of 1864. Toronto for the first two months of this year. the figures being $41,830 this year, against $74,582 for same period last year. Hamilton very nearly holds its own, the decline being only about two per cent. The figures stand for the first two months of present year, $33,852, against $34,479 for corresponding period of 1874. London, on the other hand hows an increase equal to fifty per cent., the amounts standing thus :- For first two months of the present year $15,161, against $10,095 for same period of 1864, the difference being $5,066, representing about twenty-five thousand dollars worth of goods. We fear, however, that this increase in the imports of London is attributable in a large degree to the extensive losses by fire which have occurred in that city. The total amount of duties collected at the above-mentioned five ports during the past two months, falls four per cent, short of the amount received at the port of Montreal alone, during the first

THE NEW TAXES -It is evident that the Government have had no distinctive finandians are ready to accept the responsibility, cial policy this session,—the postponement of federation and the tone of the debate on the defence question in the House of Lords have evidently had a very important influence on Mr. Galt. His proposition in parliament to grant one million for permanent defences and two millions for ordinary expenditure, without furnishing the usual estimates, clearly indicate the suddenness of his resolution, and the a'tered condition of things since the opening of Parliament. This large grant following other expenditure, with the certainty of customs revenue decreased by one-third, point to an inevitable increase in duties, and that to a large extent. The altered policy of Mr. Galt, and the extent and suddenness of his demands, implies a speedy action in levying these duties; and what we last week thought was probable only some months hence, we now think, may follow in a few days. The trade generally will look with anxiety for Mr. Galt's announcements .- Ib.

two months of 1864 .-- Trade Review.

PEACE PROSPECTS .- If the Slaveholders' rebellion is not in a very advanced stage of decomposition, then all signs fail, and history is a huge, consistent imposture. We call all men to witness that the leading articles of the Richmond journals have for some weeks been the most satisfactory and exhilarating matter that Unionists could anywhere find to read. The prophecies of Rebel tri-umphs at hand, so constantly falsified; the stupendous calls of every one to arms, which nobody obeys, are mysterious givings out of information temporarily withheld, which never comes to light; the fierce criminations and grave impeachments of high officials as incompetent or infatuated, and rushing the Confederacy headlong to ruin; the daily objurgations of the prevalent desponthroughout the whole of Upper Canada speak out plainly upon this question. Let the dificulty be met at the outset. Let us inform the Catholics that we can be no parties to this fresh Separate School agitation. Let us rels over negro arming, one portion insisting that the cause must fail unless upheld by negro bayonets, and the other insisting that, with the negroes once armed, it is lost of course; one faction clamoring for more soldiers as indispensable, the other, with per Canada that we claimed for Protestants equal truth, retorting that those already in the Lawrences. But we would also the ranks can neither be fed nor clad; the vehement protests against "submission" projects and "whipped Secessionists"—if all these do not indicate a shattered fabric and a ruined cause, then it can never be safe to infer what must be from what is .-Tribune.
