To meet Matchett, Othernee, and all medicine dealers. this proposition it has been argued that no more than three-fourths of those States which have not attempted secession are necessary to validly ratify the amendment I do not commit myself against this further than to say that such a ratification would be questionale and sure to be questioned, while a ratification by three-fourths of all the States would be quentioned and unquestionable. I repeat the question-Can Louisiana be brought into proper practical relation with the Union sooner by sustaining or by rejecting the new state government? What has been said of Louisiana will apply to other states. And yet, so great peculiarities pertain to each state, and such important and sudden changes occur in the same state, and, vithal, so new and unpreedented is the whole case, that no exclusive and inflexible plan can sately be prescibed asto details and collaterals. Each exclusive and inflexible plan would surely become a new entanglement. Important principles may and must be inflexible. In the present situation, as the phrase goes, it may be my duty to make some new announcement to the people of the South. I am considering, and shall not tal to act when satisfied that action will be
