A CHANGE IN RICHMOND.

The correspondent of the Boston Journal gives the following incident:

The Philad Ipina Press has a correspondent in the field who writes excellent letters -Mr. J. Morris Chester. He is a tall, stout, who had been paroled entered the room. "Come out of there, you black-cu-s!" shouted the officer, his teeth set and his fist effects.

Mr. Chester raised his eyes, calmly surveved the officer, and went on with his writ-Get out of there, or I'll knock your brains out!" the officer bellowed, pouring out a torrent of oaths. Mr. Chester did not move. The officer rushed up the steps to seize him by the collar, but tound himself tumbling heels over head over chairs and benches-knocked down by one well-planted blow between his eyes, which Mr. Chester had given. Mr. Chester said not a word, but sat down and went to writing as if nothing had happened. The officer sprang to his feet and called upon Capt. Hutchins of Gen Deven's staff for a sword. " I'll cut the fellow's heart out !" said he. "Oh, no; I guess not. I would not let you have my sword for any such purpose. If you want to fight Mr. Chester, I will clear a space he e and see that you have fairplay; but let me tell you that you will get a t emendous thrashing," said Capt. Hutchins. | Cannington; Gitchrist & Cameron, Woodville; Mr. Chester cominged his writing. "I dealers. thought I would exercise my rights as a bel igerent," was his remark, as he told me the story, which is fully confirmed by Capt. This happened in Richmond, in the hall of Congress, where s ciety, politicians, ministers, women, and all believe that colored men have no rights which a white man is bound to respect. What a sacrilege it was for Mr. Chester to enter the capitolthe harl- and sit in that chair where Jeff. Davis sat when he visited the Senate! The incident shows how fast and how far we have advanced towards universal human brotherhood during the four years of the war. A proclamation in Saturday's Gazette formally prorogues the parliament till the The Dublin International Exhibition was opened by the Prince of Wales on the 9th inst. The enifice and grounds occupy nearly 16 acres. The building is intended to re main, and will be calculated to afford accommodation to nearly all the varieties of amusements found in a great city. THERE is no question of the fact that Mexican pit ateers will soon be harassing French commerce. Four letters of marque have been issued by President Juarez for the Pacific, and a similar number for the Atlantic coast. The vessels will probably in out at Badimore and San Francisco.
