THE RIVER OF TIME. wonderful stream is the river of Time. As it runs through the realm of years, With a faultless rhyme, and a musical chime And a broader sweep and a surge sublime, And bends with the ocean of tears.

There's a musical isle of the river of Time, Where the softest airs are playing; There's a cloudless sky and a tropical clime And a song as sweet as a vesper chime, And the tones with the rose are straying.

There are brows of beauty and bosoms of snow, metal taken in exchange, or bought for cash. There are heaps of dust-but we loved them so There are trinkets and tresses of hair.

There are fragments of song that nobody sings And a part of an infant's prayer There's a lute unswept and a harp without strings, There are broken vows and pieces of rings
