CROWDED OUT .-- An editorial article on the County Show as well as several other articles are unavoidably crowded out of this issue. To make room for the numerous Prize Lists which we publish this week we have been compelled to leave out our summary of home and foreign news, and local notices. Next week we will find room for the Prize Lists from Fenelon and PERSONAL .--- Mr. Gimson left yesterday for the Montreal Market having been advised of the October Importations being just to hand, in which the very latest styles of Mantles, Shawls, Dress Goods and Trimmings for this winter will be found. A very fine exhibition of Novelties will be in store for the Ladies in say ten days.

Cash buyers will find it particularly advantageous to buy from S. & O. Bigelow, as they have decidedly the largest stock of Dry Goods in town, and they sell at the lowest prices. Their assortment of Dress Goods is very complete. Their prints are all fast colours and made by the best makers in England. They have a large supply of the genuine American Factory Cottons, and what is still harder to get, really good stripped shirtings. Their supply of Tweeds and Cloths will be found very OUR RELIGIOUS NOVELISTS-MR. AND large and well assorted. The choicest Family Groceries constantly on hand. Their terms are

THEM BO TS IS TOO CHEAP. - A worthy tavern-keeper in one of the western townships of the County of Sincoe, who by the way also manipulates the dry goods trade of his village, was lately roused out of his sluirbers somewhere about the "wee sma" hours ayout the twal," by a noisy charivari party, just returning from the scene of their labours, and who were clamorous for whiskey. he dispenser of the "critter" was determined that whiskey they should not have, and hit upon a notable expedient for getting rid of them. So letting the party in he assumed an attitude of thorough drunkenness, and after comfortably depositing us and from all its readers. ... Its literature himself in his arm chair, commenced to bargain with the party for boots, replying to every call for whiskey, "Them boots (ic) is too cheap (hic)." Not being able to get any further satisfaction, the party soon left in disgust, cursing the authorities who vested the power of selling whiskey in "such a sot as that."-Landlord returns to bed, chickling over the success of his ruse .- Barrie

PROCLAMATION !

WHEREAS Reciprocity is a question of the most vital importance to the Canadian people, and our government have neglected to give that attention to the subject which its magnitude demands, and as they seem to rely upon CONFEDERATION (with all its train of extravagance) as the sure panacea for all our ills. Now be it known to all to whom these prescuts shall come that the undersigned dissents from the views of our government and thinks from the delicate state of our com. mercial system for the past three or four years has unfitted the public stomach for so extravagant a dish as that novel one (the confederate stew) which our Downing Street Physicians have prescribed for us to our Canadian purveyors at Quebec. That our substantial diet, the RECI-PROCITY PUDDING, is the best food for us, spiced with retrenchment, and free from any admixture of Intercolonial seasoning, North-west Game, or worse than useless Fortification Pastry.

Reciprocity contributes vigour to our Agricultural sinews, promotes trade and commerce within our borders, and leads to contentment and happiness. Now, in view of the bountiful harvest which Divine Providence has blessed us, the good prices to be had for all kinds of Grain, Stock, &c., and in the almost certain anticipation of the abrogation of the existing Reciprocity Treaty, and in order to meet such a contingency I have decided to stop doing a credit business, and henceforward to sell FOR READY MONEY ONLY or its equivalent, upon which terms I now beg to offer the inbabitants of Lindsay and County of Victoria a superior stock of new superior stock of new
