GREAT BRITAIN. The British Parliament has been further prorogued until the 23rd inst.

The Times says the present Cabinet is complete with the exception of a single office that of Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. The Star alludes to and remarks upon the unanimity of the London press on the following points, namely:-The reform which must decide the durability of the Cabinet, and the imperative necessity of a re-construction of the ministerial personnel in the Commons, if the Cabinet is to form a new Parliament with any decent show of influence and debating power. England is not wanting in material from which the recent Liberal losses might be supplied.

The Star publishes, in large type, a letter from a member of Parliament, hinting that no Cabinet will be satisfactory to his party which does not include Mr. Bright, and suggesting his appointment to the Secretaryship Stabling.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, while on a visit to Glasgow, was presented with the freedom of the city on the 1st inst. He was invited to a dinner, which was followed by a working-men's demonstration. He also received an address from the Parliamentary Reform Union. The Chancellor spoke at some length, in acknowledgment of the honour of being placed on the citizen's roll. He deplored Lord Palmerston's loss, and paid a tribute to his memory, but bade the country be of good cheer. The name of Russell was a pledge and a promise to the people. Earl Russell was not likely to unlearn a lesson of life, to change his career, and forfeit the inheritance he had secured in the memories of his countrymen. The Chancellor hoped the country had reasonable assurance that the wise and enlightened policy of the last thirty years would still con-tinue to be followed by those who had the responsibility and direction of public affairs. THE BRAZILS AND LA PLATA.

town of Uruguay had been unconditionally surrendered to the Brazillians and the allies. and that the Paraguan garrison, 6,000 strong had been made prisoners of war.

The London Times says:-The progress of the war is more satisfactory than had been expected, considering the bravery of the Paraguayans. The news of an unconditional surrender is especially important, and, looking at the previous advantages gained by the allies, a strong expectation may be emertained that it will virtually terminate

A Rochester paper gives an account of a man who, it says, has not slept since Angust 1851, who is in his forty-sixth year, and never feels fatigued. He often works night and day for weeks consecutively, and at the end is as fresh and vigorous as when he commenced. He served three years in the Federal army, and during that period was ever ready for service, although hundreds cound him often dropped down with fatigue. He was closely observed night and day for fifty-eight days, but was never detected asleep, and it was concluded that his account of himself was true.
