There comes a time when joyous hearts,
Which leaped as leaps the laughing main,
Are dead to all save memory,
A prisoner in his dungeon chain;
And dawn of day Hath passed away, The noon hath into darkness rolled, And by the embers wan and gray, I hear a voice in whisper say, There comes a time when we grow oid.

There comes a time when manhoood's prime
Is shrouded in the midst of years,
And heauty fading like a dream,
Hath passed away in silent tears:
And then how dark l But oh, the spark

That kindled youth to hues of gold.
Still burns with clear and steady ray, And fond affections, lingering, say, There comes a time when we grow old.

There comes a time when laughing Spring And golden summer cease to be And we put on the Autumn robe To tread the last declivity; But now the slope, With rosy Hope, Beyond the sunset we behold, Another dawn with fainter light, While watchers whisper through the night, There is a time when we grow old.
