3.30 p.m. of the same day.

Stages will be in readiness at Bridgenorth and at the Peterborough Railway Station to convey Passengers, Luggage and Freight, to and from Mud or Chemong Lake.

Passengers from Fenelou Falls will be landed at Sturgeon Point, from whence they will be conveyed on board Captain Crandell's steamer to Fenelon Falls.

Pic-nic Parties can leave Lindsay in the morning at 7.30 and be landed at any desired place on the route, and be taken up in the evening on the return trip, thus saving the expense of carriages. The Beat, and stages running in connection with it, will start precisely on time.

Meals to be had on board.

This trip is one of the most delight'ul that tourists can take. In one day, with little fatigue, they have an opportunity of visiting Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Peterborough, and of passing through the romantic and beautiful Lakes Sturgeon, Pigeon, Buckhorn and Chemong, as well as the Rivers Scugog, Fenelon and Bobcaygeon. Parties wishing to spend a few days on the lakes will find the Clifton House, R. Podger's, Fenelon Falls, a first-class Hotel and a most comfortable residence, in the neighbourhood of which there is good fishing and shooting in season. Mr. Podger provides his guests with Boats and Fishing Tackle. At Bobcay-geon also there is a first-class Hotel, where every comfort and convenience can be had from the obliging proprietor, Mr. Bottum. The Lakes in the rear of Fenelon are numerous— Cameron's, Balsam, Gull, &c., and abound in
