PORTER'S BOOKSTORE. EXCHANGE OFFICE;

on Telegraph office; Fire and Life and Ac-W & J. MATTHIE.

All Kinds of Plain & Fancy Furniture. COFFINS AND SHROUDS.

TURNERS, UNCERTAKERS AND VALUATORS.

OHN MASON, OMEMEE, Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, SIMMONS & CLOUCH CABINET ORCANS.

PICHARD SMITH, LITTLE BRITAIN.

CONCERTINAS, WORK BOXES. FAMILY BIBLES. ALBUMS. WRITING DESKS SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARIES. WATCHES. DRESSING CHRISTMAS PRESENTS. THOS. BEALL LINDSAY.

The Conservatives were andoubtedly gaining ground yester-

The Midland Railway and Port Hope Harbour.

urchase would appear to be a step the right direction; and it will certo compete for Western freight,

Mr. Dormer's Defence.

We shall notice on this occasion which he evaded a vote on the New Brunswick school question. He says division through an appointment general pair arranged sometime prequestion would probably come up that evening; and it does not refound to his credit that he sacrificed an important duty to indulge in personal recreation. He should have remained at his post.

vance the price of buckets if this we an exercise that he quity continues.

The foregoing assualt upon Mr. Jus. Lemihan is so vite and cowardly that we should declare a belief that it was conoceted by Mr. Hector Cambidity of the Central Committee are recovered in the allowed his lucubrations to go forth through the columns of the Warder. We venture to prefet that upon no possible grounds could our content, have been driven to publish his wile innear does before the polling; and in so doing we pay the highest tribute to Mr. Lemihan's influence and popularity. A state hardly less vinders to the sperial policy of the Government was a ward squad for exercise in no no more highly respected among all classes. A cause must be desporate indeed that requires to be maintained by uncalled for states of the profession. They were moderate in their addresses to the sperial policy of the Government was not contained. They were moderate in their addresses to the profession. They were moderate in their addresses to the special corruption. They are not even serviceable in the such stime times and highly esteemed as Mr. Lenihan and Mr. Cleary.

be disregarded by debtors in this regard and A of possibly be surpassed.

Establishment The Prices are low, and within the reach of all In design they of depression felt in trade, and which in some sections is a good deal complained of, is due, in a great measure, to the hitherto open character of the winter, and the consequent delay in reaching market with produce. Stocks of produce in farmers' hands mean unpaid store bills, and that again implies the non-payment of accounts with the importer, the renewal of notes at the banks, heavy demands for accommodation on all sides, and genback out sit or bought and sold money to lean on Mortgages or other security.
Che Mershants' Eink, Lindsey

A McALPINE Broker.

A McALPINE Broker. accommodation on all sides, and genhave to a large extent, diverted attention from other matters. Both of these causes have, now ceased to operate. The turmoil of Thursday last ended the political struggle; and the severe frosts and snow within the past ten days, have put the roads in good condition. Grain, pork, lumber, etc., may now be moved to market; and it would be little short of criminal it would be little short of criminal folly to neglect the present favourable opportunity. Country merchants ance in the columns of our contemshould bring the strongest pressure to bear on their customers; and they in turn should be spurred up to duty by the wholesale trade. Excuses are now out of order. A settlement should be required, and a general squaring off insisted upon. Fair prices are offered Cabinet Maker and Upholsterer, in the markets for every marketable commodity, and any "holding back for higher figures," is a species of folly that ought not to be countenanced." tem is regarded as too rude a jerk-up imports of the Dominion were $71,- debts the reverse is true Another "Outrage." sual enterprise and, it may be, with heaven-born prescience, is preparing to monopolize some of the benefits exown confers to a supplement in the pected to accrue from the " incidental protection" daugled in the air during the recent campaign by Mr. Geo. Dormer and other Tory political economists whose place of nativity like that of most others of that genus, was been handled with considerable skill and no little industry in the reproduction of slanders and "outrages" manufactured in other establishments. The frequency and persistency of these the interference of the society for the provention of cruelty to animals had it not been for the well-known fact that few and far between were the unregenerate readers thus regaled. But "scissors and paste" has essayed of opinion for once. On Mr. U Donothe charge that this season would be composed to say that this wild statement is, as far as the Ontario Bank in this town is concerned, totally untrue. There is not a shadow of foundation for charge that discount was refused for political effect, or that the bank in any way whatever wielded its influence as a monetary institution for political purposes. South Ontario can speak for itself; but we are confillent there is no ground for the charge, because the Hon. T. N. Gibbs

or compelled powered this indiversal method in the commentation of the charge, because the Hon. T. N. Gibbs or compelled powered this institution for the discount at this season would not have tee, the Screetary thereof, The Post, and everything within reach. In fact he has been howling like a mad hyena ever since, instead of settling down a shadow of foundation for the charge that discount was refused for political effect, or that the bank in any way whatever wielded its influence as a monetary institution for political purposes. South Ontario can speak for itself; but we are confillent there is no ground for the charge, because the Hon. T. N. Gibbs

of the charter-sellers' wrath were poured out largely, but without effect. Anonymous letters, concetted within the office of the chief corruptionist organ, have been successful only in blasting the little prospect which that undertaking ever had of success. For that I am sorry, in the interests of the journalistic profession of Canada; for the newspaper I refer to, had it been conducted on economical principles financially or decent principles editorially, would have done and untruthful attacks on our respected member for the infleent has been howling like a mad hyena ever since, instead of setting down to the charget profession
of Canada; for the newspaper I refer
to, had it been conducted on economical principles financially or decent principles editorially, would have done much to improve the tone of the Canadiagrams him had it not heen fident there is no ground for the charge, because the Hon. T. N. Gibbs is Vice President of the institution.

Calpet Baggers."-A Coward
If Attack.

We commend to the considerate attention of Mr. Mackenzie the couple of political missionaries, who leaving their liverative situations in Toronto and Rowmannillo, and stuffing their liverative situations in Toronto and the diddledge, and a few paper cellars, canno here to the scene of their former successes to enlighten their cold neighbors on the duties of the hour. The Toronto man, [Mr. James Leunian] especially, has for some time becume applicant for a hierative governing the peace and applicant for a hierative studies and unfairness. The have been a arrind on in a manner more diagraceful to the losing party than that any election, in any country, could have been carried on in a manner more diagraceful to the losing party than that are that any election, in any country, could have been carried on in a manner more diagraceful to the losing party than that are that any election, in any country, could have been carried on in a manner more diagraceful to the losing party than that work up No Ben lok ether question intil the consciousness of a blasted reputation in marked contrast to his vaunted strength as a candidate, or with a reckless determination to arouse bad blood, made a weak and rambling defence of his vote—we begin be pardon, of his total neglect of the interests of constituents upon whose suffrages he professed to have a special claim. Even then Mr. Dormer's eloquence received but scant notice; claim. Even then Mr. Dormer's eloquence received but scant notice; while he made passionate appeals to his co-religionists to support Mr. Mc-lormer's hue was as verdant as Mr. Tom Stephenson's perairies; at another he was yellower than the "Heathen Chines," and so frequent were the changes that the dexterity of this chameleon politician was sorely tried. It is the support to be conceased. The the charges the content of the concease that the provider into power, but privately they boasted of it as a foregone conclusion. The result of the first vote could not fail to be demoralizing. And now that the Premier has offered a final settlement of the difficult problem—a problem which those who proposed it could not and did not attempt to solve—their last hope has died a way. The bill under which all societies not fillegal may obtain incorporation—a piece of quintessence of hypocrisy for the party, who have traded upon religious feelings, who have stirred up national jealousies, who have concoted the second time, without a division or the long list of outrages and slanders from Proton to the burning of the Pacific your readers probably know, according railway survey papers, to raise hands:

Outrages and slanders from proposition of any amendments. This, your readers probably know, according to Parliamentary usage, is a practical long list of outrages and slanders from in holy horror, as is now being done, from the chief vehicle of slander in

AFFAIRS AT TORONTO. THE DOMINION ELECTIONS IN TORONTO— TACTICS OF SCANDAL - PROVINCIAL OPPOSITION-THE ORANGE QUESTION.

TORONTO, Febru ary 23. THE POLITICAL CONTEST. . tighter. If insisting on the cash sysfor the feelings of their customers, let the possible treatment of it so varied them go as far in that direction as possible If every trader would be and extensive, that for the present I This, I fancy, will be the point upon numerous converts would be made. their application. Toronto, while certhe present is no time for expansion. tainly not the commercial capital of the CASES, CHINA VASES,

Within about five years the imports at Toronto have risen from about seven to more than fourteen millions and what is true of this suitable for

The present is no time for expansion. Within about five years the imports at Toronto have risen from about that the two leading organs of the two leading organs of the two parties into which our body politic is divided are published in Toronto, is whole country. In 1867-8 the total whole country. In 1867-8 the total alone sufficient to secure for it that imports of the Dominion were $71. aports of the Dominion were $11, position; and the extraordinary influ-which will not bear the light of day, the June last, the total was $125,586,523.

These figures show a rapid expansion those journals, furnished, as it always These figures show a rapid expansion in trade; whether more rapid than the general progress of the country is a question about which it would be matters connected with the city, espeuseless to dogmatize, but respecting which every one may form his own opinion. It must be apparent, however, that in the face of such facts nor inherent importance could command some broad principle, however long that Canalian 2051. ever, that in the face of such facts nor inherent importance could command some broad principle, however long that time may be of coming. It will not time may be of coming. It will not cash price read for be thought of. The commercial safety authority that a prophet is not without come soon, if the Government of Onta-LINDSAY, FRIDAY, FEB. 6, 1874. of the Dominion lies in keeping credit within healthy limits; and we are convinced that trade has already priate so far as the journal in question of affairs from the beginning. M. A. B. parties have made important gains in hifferent sections but as the parties have made important gains in parties have made important gains in different sections; but it is too early wealth, and might afford cause for the Globe been elected to Parliament conjecture which will be left the congratulation; but if represented by the Globe been elected to Parliament ELECTIONS OF ALL KINDS—POLITICAL for Toronto, and, at the last general turned, they were barely able to get in skywards. Hitherto "scissors and result, their refusal to be patronized by

one. This was only natural, for the multifarious duties, and in its persistent refusal to wink at the corrupt practices of the influential wire-pullers who to be filled, I shall endeavour to give control a large party of the electorate, made many enimies; and the rapid progress of its proprietors towards independence, both in financial and political matters, including, as a natural paste" have formed the humble but leading political snobs, alienated from not ineffective weapons of warfare it the support of those who pride thememployed by our contemporary, and selves in being the aristocracy of this in justice we must say that they have democratic country. The result of the Thurston, T. Staples, W. Hamilton and recent contest shows that the Globe, or C. E. Tiers; Sec. Treasurer, J. Junkin; more correctly speaking, the principles | Auditors, J. H. Read and W. B. Read. of which it is the exponent, have at This society is in a very satisfactory po- to make no pledges for last gained the ascendancy, and as all sition, having a balance on hand after the Dominion of Canada knows, we are paying all their prizes, etc. of 364. In now represented by three Reformers. 1873 they numbered 72 subscribers and The weapons with which our opponents fought the battle were of the most ignoble kind. The catalogue of crime was the election of School Trustee which resulted in the re-election of Mr. H. Thompson with a majority of 29 over raked up in order to find suitable mis-demeanours with which to charge our Directors of the Verulam Cemetery bolder flights in the ignoble work; candidates, and the vocabularies of Billingsgate and the Saut market ranimagination for the slanders and outsacked for disreputable names to call rages that give an air of originality and the saut market ranimagination for the slanders and outsacked for disreputable names to call L. Read, W.B. Read and A. Orr Last rages that give an air of originality and piquancy to columns that have been a synonym for sterility and dullness. Our contemporary's imagination has been stirred up by the conduct of some persons who it seems, posted some placards calling "Orangement to the rescue for McQuade." This placard was apparently natural enough under the circumstances; but these misguided persons being less expert at handling the paste-brush than our contemporary, made, it would appear, some blunders thereby, arousing fearful wrath that is vented upon the rages that give an air of originality them by. It is true that Mr. Moss, but not least came our election for mem decked out with sensational phrases suggestive of heavy consumption of "midnight oil." And that, too, after a magnanimous proposal to shake hands. Our contemporary magnificently offers to let byegones be bye-gones and then sheds a bucket of indignation! We shall advance the price of buckets if this thing continues.

second time, without a division or the recognition and acceptance on the part of the whole House of the correctness of the principle of the measure; and at any further stage in its passage through Parliament, it is impossible to carry or even propose any amendment which will materially alter, or indeed in any way interfere with that principle.
Any changes must therefore be of a verbal nature, and the only question upon which a division can be taken for the defeat of the Government POLITICS - FACTIOUS AND INCAPABLE | would be the rejection of the entire measure. I do not anticipate that the issue will be laid before the House in this shape. In fact, I am much mistaken if any serious obstructions will be placed in the way of the bill at all. "In this connection it is appropriate to suggest to country merchants the necessity in opening new accounts of drawing the reins of credit a little tighter. If insisting on the cash systhis; but the matter is so vast, and the general measure, the Orangemen must fyle a draft of their constitution possible If every trader would become a missionary of sound views on the evils of credit, and the benefits of ready cash, we are convinced that

BOBCAYGEON.

As this is about the season when peo ple generally have the election fever and elections and appointments to the differyou a correct list. First comes the Council of which you are already in the possession of its composition. Then comes the Agricultural Society when the following gentlemen were elected at Junkin, jr.; Vice-President, Alex. Rob ertson; Directors, Jos. Kelso, H. Werry, W. Lyle, J. L. Read, W. B. Read, W.

the Local House until

The great election excitement has now about subsided and people have betaken county of Victoria.

Liondon; Eng., Feb. 5, 10 a.m.

terms of peace. The result is

Men Bareitigements. STRAY HELFER

it, 2nd concession Oss, in December last, a Yeling Heifer. As a person priving property and palms expenses can have the same.

FRANCIS FEE. This is to ferbal all parties signings giving erect my account without my written order, as other Ops, Feb'y 3rd, 1374.—752 Spd.

NOTICE. The undersigned begs leave to notify his custoners that their accounts for 1873 are now ready, at on which if not paid at eace 12 per cant interest with the charged.

SMALL BLACK AND TAN DOG about 9 mos. old with very long ears, answers the name of Cappie. The finder will be suital rewarded by leaving it at the bouse of H. Graha t. Peter Street, Lindsay.—753-lpd. NOTICE.

ROMAN CATHOLIC ACADEMY. All persons having any claims against John Whyte and Joseph Redmond in connection with the Now Roman Catholic Academy in Lindsay are requested to send in the same to the undersigned post-paid to their address at Peterhorough.

DENNISTOUN BRO. & HALL,
Solicitors for Joseph Redmon
Dated 4th February, 1874.—752-2.

TO CONTRACTORS. TENDERS will be received by the Incumbent and Chur wardens of Christ Church, Omemee, up to MONDAY, the 23rd INSTANT, for the erection of a Frame Church, consisting sarily be accepted.

W. HENRY JONES, Incumbent. VINCENT CORNWALL, Wardens. LEATHER! LEATHER

There is nothing like Leather. If you want any J. LISLE'S NEW BRICK TANNERY, McNeil's old stand, Wil-tum street, opposite Judd's woollen factory, where you can buy GOOD HARNESS, COWHIDE, KIP, CALF AND Dress Goods, STRING LEATHER,

The highest cash price paid for Hides and Skins and Tanbark. If you want one of LISLE'S NEW PATENT CHURNS go and examine them. They will save you a great deal of hard labour. Remember, McNeil's old stand, William Street. J. LISLE.

Lindsay, Feb. 5th, 1874.—752-ly. THE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE.

The Independent Electors of South Victoria

are respectfully solicited

they have heard from the people's candidate.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LANDS. COUNTY OF VICTORIA, Will be sold at my orlice in the COURT HOUSE

TOWN of LINDSAY Saturday, the 28th Day of February, Blankets.

at the hour of twelve o'clock, noon, under and by virtue of a Writ of Venditioni Exponas, all the right title and interest of the undermentioned defendant in and to the following Lands and Tenements, viz: IN THE COUNTY COURT, JOHN HAM PERRY, vs. ROBERT BLYTHE,

LOT NUMBER TWENTY-NINE In the Front Range, on Gull River, in the Township of Bexlev

SIXTY-THREE ACRES be the same more or less.

GEORGE KEMPT.

Sheriff, County of Victor Sheriff's Office, Lindsay, 2nd February, A. D. 1874. } First published 6th Feb'y, 1874.—752-4

THE COURT HOUSE

----- ARE RECEIVING AND OPENING

77 HERE 5977

WITH EVERY CONFIDENCE.

Hosiery and Gloves,

Shawls and Manties

Fancy Woolens,

Haberdashery,

Ordered Clothing,

Gentlemen's Furnishings,

Carpets,

House-Furnishings,

WILL BE FOUND COMPLETE

RAY & THORNBURY

CARLOCA AND CONFECTIONS

. 35 TOME & LINCOLD

KENT & WM, STS.

New Men. New Prices.

DOHENY'S BLOCK.

Mext door to Ray & Thornbury's

WINES.

LIQUORS.

GROCERIES

AND

PROVISIONS

GROCKERY AND GLASSWARE.

FISH OF ALL KINDS

Mease call and examine goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere

FEED OF ALL KINDS,

A LARGE LOT OF FRESH TEAS.

Which will be sold at prices that wil astonish the people of Lindsay and surrounding count FOR CASH OR PRODUCE.

& CARROL CADOTTE

Millinery, DIRECT IMPORTATIONS.

J. R. DUNDAS,

AUTUMN IMPORTATIONS

STAPLE and FANCY

DRY GOODS

Lindsey, September 27th, 1873.

TALL AND WINTER SHOW OF DRY GOODS MILLINERY, &C.

J. McCAMMON Would advise his customers and the public generally that his stock is now complete in every department, and he is prepared to give the very best value in all classes of Dry Goods, Millinery and Clothing that can be precured in the town. J. McCAMMON, Kent Street

SELLING AT COST!

Staples. GLASGOW WAREHOUSE.

$25,000 WORTH

DRY GOODS AND GROCERIES

Which must be sold for cash by 1st Feb.

MALCOM MORISON VICTORIA TEA STORE.

100 Chests of Green, Black & Japan Teas

AT PRICES WHICH WILL DEFY COMPETITION. Honey Syrups.

Also, a large and varied stock of GENERAL DRY GOODS

DRIME GOODS, CLOTHS, TWEEDS, BLANKETS, &c., READY-MADE CLOTHEING, BOYS' and MENS' OVERCOATS, HATS, CAPS and FURS, BOOTS and SHOES AN ENDLESS VARIETY

BE SIZES AND QUALITIES, RUBBER OVERSHOES, SHOE PACKS and Present in want of the above articles would do well to

AND BEAMINE A RESERVE AND INCOME. JAMES WATSON,

CORNER OF KENT AND WILLIAM STS