They are horrified at the idea of being charged 10 or 12 per cent. for money, but pay the village storekeeper two or three times that rate, with the utmost complacency, in the shape of extra profit on their goods for the sake of "buying on time." If the substantial class who pay are not thus charged, the blow must fall on some one else. That a large margin beyond credit prices, in order to conduct a successful retail trade, is a proposi-tion that, in order to be conceded, has only to be stated. Else who pays the bad debts? What becomes of the interest on the capital invested in the goods sold on credit? Both of these

Cash vs. Credit.

We think the press can scarcely do any greater material service to the country than by inculcating upon all seasonable occasions sound business views; and especially by pointing out the great advantages of the cash as opposed to the crenit system. A short time ago this and other journals urged the propriety of retailers throughout the country coming to some agree. Nothing has yet been done in that direction, but we have no doubt the feeling in favor of curtasiing oredit has increased not a little; in fact the proposed step is a necessity and onnoted to general services in the feeling in favor of curtasiing oredit has increased not a little; in fact the feeling in favor of curtasiing oredit has increased not a little; in fact the feeling in favor of curtasiing oredit will help to spread that feeling among farmers, we reprint from the Monetory Times some sensible comments on a circular issued to his one former by a western retail trader in which are plainly contracted the reductive merits of Cash and Credit. The bill for the Grand Junction Railway extension has been introduced; but not printed; consequently its provisions are printed; consequently its provisions are not known. The people of Lindsay will naturally feel a deep interest in both the above mentioned undertakings.

I understand it is the intention of the Government to set off the northern section of the County of Peterbero' and portion of the northern part of the County of Victoria into a judicial district, giving them a stipendiary magistrate, a registrar, and so forth, as well as building a lock-up for that section.

struction of the Victoria Railway. The present petition by the President of the Company, G. Laidlaw, to the Lieut. Governor in Council, asking for aid towards the early construction of the road has revived our drooping spirits considerably, as it is pretty generally believed that the prayer of the petition will be granted by the Government. Several prominent men from all parts of the country were in attendance with townsmen, Mr. J. D. Smith, kindly consented to represent our interest by attending as a member of the deputation, and there is every reason to believe that a liberal subsidy will be granted to this Company, and thus aid in the developing of our immense resources in this back country.
