(By Telegraph from our Special Correspondent.)
FINELON FALLS, April 22, 1774.
Mr. George Laidiaw addressed a meeting of the inhabitants of Penelon Palls, at Scully's Hall, on Monday evening on Railway matters. At the close of his address which clearly and full explained the pesition of the project, a resolution was passed without opposition in favour of granting the bonus saked for from the village, $16,000.
There is pense little difference of opinion as to where the station should be, not however sufficient to endanger the by-law.

MERTING IN VERTILAM.
On Theestay Mr. Laidlaw held a meeting in Melly's School house in Verulam which was also largely attended and was favourable to the scheme. It is not yet settled what portion of Verulam will seeks the Victoria Railway. Two plans are under consideration, one a Sectional by-law, and the other is a Township by-law, giving part of the bonus to the Victoria Railway from that direction to Boheavgeon.
