Country dealers tell us they cannot very well do this, as they depend on the farmer to seil their goods, and unless they give the same price to a farmer who has equally as good grain as his neighbor, but not so well cleaned, they lose his trade.

This evil is growing more every year, and unless dealers take a different course. Canada will lose the reputation of the state of the course. Canada will lose the reputation. Verben as. —Ist, John Thornbury; 2nd , W.; M. Robsou.
