WHISKEY SELLERS PUNISHED.—Last week four tramps named John McDonald, John O'Neill, James Kenney and David Maxwell were arrested at Lornevville for stealing two bottles of rye and one of brandy from McIntyre's tavern at that place. They were committed to Lindsay gaol, and on Thursday last tried before Judge Dean, at the Q. S. session. McDonald, O'Neill and Kenney were each sentenced to one month in gaol with hard labour, and Maxwell was let off with a lecture.

CRICKET BAT.—We are much pleased to see that our fellow-townsman, Mr. Hugh O'Leary, having completed his course of studies in the eminent legal firm of Blake, Kerr & Boyd, has passed a very creditable examination and been called to the bar for the present term. He intends taking up his residence once more in Lindsay and there practice in partnership with his brother A. O'Leary, and from his well known abilities as a lawyer and his sterling worth as a man standing first in this Province, we are certain Mr. O'Leary will meet success.
