JOHN'S LOVE STORY.

[CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE.]

...suppose it is just as experience like any other. ...to tell being."

...passed through the kitchen ...ut quick as lightning that passage about three ...of the house to the village, but kept back ...

"I perceive you have filled up my place," said John.

"No, we not filled up your place; I have put in a junior temporarily to do the work. My dear Mr. Bridal," said the head clerk, with a smile, "if you were only an ordinary shopboy like one of the rest—"

"I should not be worth my salt," said John, with a faint sigh.

"No, not that; very far from it; you are only too good for us. That is all. It is ...ordinary shopboy with your education to be you making choice that any lad could make. But of course you occupy a very different position, Mr. Bridal; we are aware of that."

A false position," said poor John's disturb... the young fellow for me. No, I have not come back to work. I want to see Mr. Crediton if I can. You don't expect him to-day and to-morrow? Then I must see him somewhere else."

"Is Parkwood," said Mr. Wickels; "you can always see him at Parkwood."

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

"A VOICE FROM CANADA"

FATHER CHINIQUY TO FATHER MUSGROVE.

[From the Catholic Times, Dec. 15, 1876.]

Father Wright has received a vigorous letter from the Canadian apostle Father Chiniquy who was recently in England. We also acknowledge a which we very thankfully. because the writer is in ...strongly.

It is Monday night. The hour is eight that ... is now falling all fields in Canada at this season in large flakes. Inside, I am sitting ... by my bright stove and the shining of large ... and your Lenten muffins. Here is the hour ... and the lay. All these homely instinct delight ... know that I am a mouth ago on both sides of ... on towards, yourself and your fellow-labourers ... the platform. I think I see them all there ... full of enthusiasm, devotion and zeal. ... Here, now, as we sit writing ... I am after ... standing my hand sharply on the table, and ... I pause for a moment, and hear it still be ... as an echo, and I see the whole assembly ... of triumph. Of course, I am speaking ... of the Catholic Congress which was held ... in Montreal, and came from all parts of ... Dominion and the United States of America ... Kingdom to be present. Yankees-ized ... Englishmen, Irishmen, Scotchmen, Canadians ... and gloves all the year's ... Catholic Congress. ... Application will be made at the ... Parliament of Dominion ... for a charter, and ... Dominion and ... Kingdom to be present. Yankees-ized ... Englishmen, Irishmen, Scotchmen, Canadians ... and gloves all the year's ... Catholic Congress. ... Application will be made at the ... Parliament of Dominion ... for a charter, and ...

...

...