Thoughts seemed to be driven across

The words were not ended, when Karl Robers replied suddenly with — A row occurred the other evening among the Chinese residents of Toron to. It seems that Wah Ling, of the Adelaide-st. laundry, visited Sun Sing, living on Queen-st., and urged him, is rather vigorous language, not to fur ther reduce the price of "washes," of which the latter had an intention of doing. Sing told Ling to mind his own business, whereupon a fight ensued, during which the former drew a knife and made a thrust at Ling, who parried the blow with his hand, nearly severing his fingers in doing so. Securing the weapon, however, he charged Sing who escaped into the street, where they both fell into the clutches of the police.

—At the Guelph assize court Mr. Justice Wilson punished certain parties found to have been tampering with the jurymen in a case in which the former were interested. Hefore the jury were dismissed for the night they were warned by his Lordship against discussing the cause of perjury under consideration. This was not observed, however, as Othello Cook, the private prosecutor, said that one of the jury named David Cooper, of Nicol, after having been treated by him at the American hotel, told him that the case would go all ritht or in his favor. The matter having been brought to his Lordship's attention next morning he dismissed the jury, ordered the jurymen Cooper and Cook to be tined $30, and to be imprisoned until the fine was paid. The fines were paid.
