PUBLISHER'S NOTICES.

CASH SYSTEM. In accordance with resolutions adopted by the Canadian Press Association, passed 1877, by the leading country newspaper publishers, we adhere more strictly to the cash system and to collect long credits.

TRANSIENT ADVERTISING such as notices and orders for sale of stock, real estate, lost or found, must be paid in advance or in first week of publication. Notices and estimates furnished by mail. Small notices published three or four times for a trifling charge.

CONTRACT ADVERTISING to be settled every three months. Professional, hotel and business cards to be paid for in advance or in the first part of the year.

JOB PRINTING. Small transient orders, cash; all other with order, or delivery of goods. Larger accounts settled quarterly or monthly.

SUBSCRIPTIONS. The Post is $1 50 in advance, or $1 75 if not paid within six months of the year; $2 00 if not paid within six months of subscription. Payment strictly in advance required from Postmasters acting as agents in the country and townships. Subscribers wishing stopping and papers not so ordered immediately stopping and papers not so ordered will be charged at extension of subscription. THE CIRCULATION LARGE. The figures following address label indicate the date to which subscription is paid. Thus John Jones 31 Dec 77 means subscription paid up to end of December, 1877.

REQUESTS TO DISCONTINUE the paper must be accompanied by the amount due, or the paper will be continued. Subscribers are responsible until orders to discontinue and payment made.

NOTICE TO MONEY FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS. Postmasters are authorized to receive money for other receipts will be given) and to change address (if name) and if this is not done (date of remittance) the paper will be continued. Subscribers should write plainly, giving Post Office, County and Province, and in remitting to them examining label, so that mistakes may be rectified.
