A GERMAN OPINION.

The North German Gazette says:—
Considering to-day's news the meeting of the Congress at an early date can scarcely be expected. A war between Russia and England, however, need not yet be regarded as a necessary consequence of England's attitude. The Russian army remains at present near Constantinople, and its conduct will in the main be regulated by that of the British fleet.

The Agence Russe says: Russiahaving communicated the entire preliminaries to the Powers, having declared that no secret treaty exists, and having recognised in each member of the Congress a full right of discussing, proposing and determining, the London Cabinet's concuct in insisting on imposing its formula upon Russia can only be regarded as bad chiezne, revealing an offensive intention. occurrence last Friday morning was a THE NEW BULGARIAN PRINCIPALITY THE NEW BULGARIAN PRINCIPALITY.
