his life he has seen gentlemen with hard heads drinking a great deal more than is good for them; he has a weak one; but is indecent enough to wish to be convivial "below-stairs" too, and of course, came to grief. Now drunkenness, sitting hiccoughing at the head of its table, and able to offer its guests the choicest wines, is one thing, and drunkenness in low life, without a cellar to bless itself with, is another. Faugh! send him away, and let him not come 'twixt the air and our nobility; that man will die in a work-house.

BLUE RIBBON. -- The last regular meet ing of the Omemee Gospel Temperance (Tub took place in the "brick church" on Tuesday, 16th inst. As intimated in a previous issue of THE POST, the Rev. Mr. Walker, of Bethany, was the lecturer of the evening and gave a very fine address. Thanks to the Methodist Church choir some excellent music was furnished and the audience dispersed well pleased with the intelligent and instructive proceedings of the evening. The next meeting will take place on Tuesday evening, 30th inst., under the control of our "local talent."

PETERBOROUGH. COST OF SCHOOLS.—The School Board have notified the Council that they require $10,100 for the current year—$7, 550 for the High School, and $2,250 for the High School, and the Collegiate Institute.

who was spluttering over the papers and ing extracts was not only going to bring up the matter, but that he would, in addition, move to have the representatives of the Liberal papers swept out of the gallery in short metre. But, to everybody's astonishment, Mr. T. N. Gibbs arose and, moving the adjournment of the House, proceeded to lug in by the ears the great grievance from which the Mogul of the Conservative party fancied he was unjustly suffering. Before this occurred, Sir John and "Tupper's goose" fled the Chamber. Had the former stood to his guns, risen in his place and given the charges
