THE MAILS.—Commencing list April, our mails arrive by train, and the stage business between here and Minden has been done away with. Minden is supplied by stage from Minden Station on the Victoria Railway.

SCARCITY OF FORMER.—Hav is still arriving by the carload. Many of the farmers aver run short of food for their cattle owing to the length and severity of the winter.

AN OLD GENTLEMAN on Jarvis-st, has been suffering for many years with periodical attacks of rheumatism and has tried a large number of sure cures in vain. The old man is a thirsty old soul and occasionally takes a "wee drappie' too much. His better-half libering anxious to break him off such a bad habit succeeded very unexpectedly as follows: She saw an advertisement in the papers of a sure cure for drunk-emess and procured a bottle of the medicine, which is called Adipso. After effacing the label she gave it to her husband, and strange as it may appear he has not been able to touch a drop of liquor of any kind since that day. The very sight of sbirtis is nauseating in the extreme. I can vouch for the truth of this, having known the gentleman as above mentioned for a number of vears. The rheumatism is still as bad as ever.
