when the tunnel was completed, and the prisoners entered, intending to come up through the opening beyond the prison precincts. The soldiers posted at the opening shot the escaping prisoners as they came up, when the bulk of the prisoners, terrified by the noise of the tiring, remained in the tunnel. Soldiers were sent in from behind, and the unfortunate wretches caught between the two fires were all shot down. The proceedings seemed to give the officials much amusement, and the Director of Kieff Prison has been praised and decorated. Quite in keeping with this is a statement published by a Russian chaplain in the Central Prison, at who hundred died within four months. One
