

TUNJAS AND FAVELLE'S FINEST CIRCULARS.

In maintaining our business we have kept abreast of the times and have during the Spring taken advantage of every favourable turn in the market so as to bring within the reach of our numerous customers goods at the lowest prices.

We hesitate not to say that in no previous history of the dry goods trade of this country have prices so generally ruled in favour of the buyer as at present, and we are to-day in a position to offer throughout our house a range of lower quotations than ever before. We have the utmost confidence in asking our friends to visit our place of business this season with a prospect of realizing a large saving.

The experience of twenty years in the Dry Goods business in Lindsay has given us a knowledge of the wants of the County, and a thorough acquaintance with the best markets to buy in. Our premises are unexcelled in size, enabling us to embrace every branch necessary for the convenience of Dry Goods purchasers, namely, Tailoring Business, Millinery Business, Dress-making Business, Our facilities, we may say, are unsurpassed.

PLAIN & FANCY DRESS GOODS.

In Fancy Dress Goods every novelty is represented in style, colour and texture, which will be found up to the usual standard of excellence. Samples will be sent, postage prepaid.

We offer a special remark about our Black Lustres, namely, they possess great brilliancy, and are exceptionally good in colour.

SILKS, VELVETS AND CRAPES.

Our stock of Black and Coloured Silks is offered at extremely low prices, as they were purchased before the new tariff came in force. Our sales in these goods justify the conclusion that they are no where else in value.

TWEEDS AND CLOTHING.

This department is pronounced to be one of the largest, best assorted, and most attractive of the kind to be found, embracing English, Scotch, French and Canadian products. Mr. McMillan is still our outer.

GENTS' FURNISHINGS.

We may also say this department never had greater attention, and will be found more than ever well assorted.

Shirts in White, Regatta, Oxford, with and without collar attached. Collars in Gents' and Boys' Linen and Paper, in the new styles. Bon Bon ties and scarfs in endless variety. Silk Handkerchiefs in all colors.

HOSIERY AND GLOVES.

Our assortment of Hosiery is immense. We have leading lines in English, German and American makes, and we pledge ourselves to supply the wants of our friends in a most satisfactory manner.

Gloves—the established reputation of this department will be maintained so that in the Kid branch of it for quality, variety and value, our friends will find no stock presenting greater attractions.

MILLINERY AND MANTLES.

This department has greater attention than at any previous period, and those who have visited our rooms have borne the flattering testimony that for STYLE, volume, price, suitability to the wants of this country, that our exhibit is unsurpassed.

ORDER DEPARTMENT.

Letter orders form an important part of our business, and their execution receive special attention. We put ourselves in the buyers' place and gladly give the benefit of our experience, so that he may derive every advantage that a personal visit would ensure.

IN CONCLUSION, we would cordially solicit a personal examination of our stock and prices, assuring those favouring us that they will not be pressed to buy. On All Cash Purchases exceeding $3.00 we allow a Special Discount.
