THOSESHOOTING ACCIDENTS.—Young Gregory, who was shot last week, as recorded in The Post, is still alive, and the prospects of saving his life are good. Dr. Lowe is attending him with great care. The ball passed through the left lung, and came out obliquely at the left hand side of the spine. W. Roberts, who got a revolver ball in his leg by the accidental discharge of a pistol, has got it there still. It lodged on the thigh bone and got under some cord, or bone, or sinew, and wouldn't come out. Another gun accident didn't take place. A man named Richardson thought he was shot in the
