The Christmas Post.—You are congratulated on all sides here for your splendid christmas number. People wonder how, in a town the size of Lindsay, such an enterprise can be displayed. All goes to show the go abreadativeness of the press and business men of your embryo city. The forthcoming instalments of the new story, "The Wreck of the Morning Star," are awaited with great interest. If that story is as good a one as the "Romance in Mid-Ocean" it will be widely read, and will secure many new subscribers for THE POST.

TEAMBETING. The annual teameeting in connection with the C. M. church in this village came off on christmas evening, and was a decided success in every respect. The incellectual part of the programme was ably filled by Revs. Davies and Joran and Mosses McNeil of Rosedale: Dr. Pitcher filled the chair. It would be unnecessary to attempt a compilinent to the ladies on Plair and BARN FRAMING —A CORRECTION.—Having rented my farm and sold off my farm stock and implements, some-opp-section framers took advantage of the circumstances to report round the country that I had sold out and gone to Dakota. This is not true. The fact is that I have rented my farm and the tenant has moved into the house on the Lee farm adjoining, which I bought last spring from E D. Orde, and I will be prepared to take contracts as usual to build houses, barns, bridges, &c, of wood, stone, brick or iron on the most reasonable terms.

We beg to announce that we have cut down our prices so low that we can meet any fair competition in reason.
