NEELANDS vs. GROSS.

[To the Editor of The Canadian Post.]

Sir.—I would deal a little further with Mr. Neelands, and his letter in The post of last week, and crave another short space in your columns for that urpose. In the first place, he denies having given any one to understand that a written lease existed between Mr. Wilson and myself, while several good citizens of the town affirm that he did say such was the case, and one of them, Mr. John Matthie, well and favourably known in this community; he has given me permission to use his name in this connection, and to him I refer all lovers of truth and justice for a statement that will not assist, to any very great extent, in establishing Mr. Neelands's reputation as a reliable man. I do not deem it important to reply in full to his letter, as most of it is equivocal, quibbling and evasive, and will therefore handle only the main points he endeavored to make.

Mr. Neelands purchase a ciaum against me, and would he have invested his money in what he has called a four or fitted call claim against any other than a competitor. Subjoined is a certificate of Mr. Wilson, my landiord, which will decide the question of rent. This certifies that I have never claimed which will decide the question of rent. This certifies that I have never claimed and yrent from Mr. Gross in advance, that at the time I gave the statement was due me no rent, it not be given that no rent was due me no rent, it not be easier that to wait a no rent was due me no rent, it not be easier that I asked his solicitor to wait until after the first of November, in order to give my landlord a chance to protect my goods.

To Mr. Barron, his solicitor, I

THE MANILLA CONGREGA-TIONAL CHURCH.

[To the Editor of The Canadian Post.] SIR,-In your issue of the 4th Rev.R. McKay, evangelist of Kingston, under the above heading has made an uncailed for personal attack upon myself under the pretence of receiving insulting letters from me on this subject. Were it not that my wife was sick of a fever for the last three weeks, caused by Rev. R. McKay's injudicious publications of erroneous statements about her brother (which he did not send you for publication) I would have replied to his lengthy and showy letter before now. If Rev. R. McKay only knew that I am known to over ten thousand in the province of Ontario who never saw my face and that there are very few if any Congregational churches in Canada within whose pale I have much warmer friends than he has, he would form some idea of the indiffer-

The church here knows that I am a true friend to it, as it has ample proofs of it since the time that the chapels were built till the present day. And when away from Manilla in 1807 to Saginas I sent their minister, Rev. D. McGregor, $30 to keep the pure gospel. McGregor, $30 to keep the pure gospel for among the people of Manilla. And for Rev. R. McKay has a substantial proof that I am a true friend of his. But seishness, arrogance, pride and pressumption, whether in a minister or a team member of a church, will find an oppon-
