The benefit concert to be given by Miss
Wemyss and Mrs. Head on Thursday evening, bee. 3th, is certain to attract a large andience. Both ladies have given their services, freely at various musical gatherings and they should have a bumper house Monday week. We quote the following from the Napaneo Standard: "The second of the popular concerts by the Misses Wemyss was given on Monday evening, when they more in an subtained their reputation as vocasists of the highest order. All the pieces were good, but 'limiting-tower' and 'Edinhors' town' met with the most marked approval of the andience. In articulation, expression and poliched style these ladies have never been excelled in Napanee, and their enter town in the worth ten times the fee for admission."
