

WHAT THE YOUNG MAN SAID?

He said that he knew that THEXTON BROS. had brought into town the largest assortment of SILVER-PLATED GOODS, FINE CUTLERY and SKATES. He thought, too, they had by far the largest stock of HANLAN and LANCE TOOTH SAWS ever seen in Lindsay.

Other things he was sure of, including some half-dozen makes of AXES. He knew that everything was AWAY DOWN IN PRICE, being sold for SPOT CASH.

A Christmas Surprise.

Well, Clara, what will you have for a Christmas present this year? Mr. Adelon was pulling on his boots in front of the fire as he asked the question, and Clara was looking at her little white-headed maid at the breakfast table.

That's a dreadful state of things, said Mr. Adelon. Clara laughed and shook her head. "I must set my brain to work to come up with something new for a Christmas surprise."
