UPTERGROVE. [Correspondence of The Post.] GRAND PRESENTERIAN SOIREE. ASYOUR

regular correspondent has not shown his hand for some weeks past I beg to hand you as brief an account of our immense soiree as possible, which will be interesting to a large number of your readers (as they are mostly our friends). Nearly everyone must have heard that the annual soirce in connection with the Presbyterian con-gregation of this place was to be held on Thursday evening, Dec. 28th, because it was announced through the Orillia Times. Now, when it appears in THE POST, everyone will know how it came off. Never before in Mara was there such a successful sofree held, and the success is mainly due to our energetic and beloved pastor, Rev. H. Sinclair. By half-past six the church was crowded to the doors and large numbers could not gain admittance, therefore Sinclair threw open wide the doors of the manse where all who could not make their way into the church were made welcome and feasted on good things till the inner man was satisfied. About 400 were in attendance at the church and after prayer by Rev. II. Sinclair the meeting was declared open. The ladies of the congregation at once commenced to serve out the refreshments in true modern style. We had placed before us all the good things that the inner man could ever desire, an abundance and plenty to spare. After all had done justice to themselves, the Orillia Presbyterian choir not having arrived, Mr. J. H. Maguire was called upon to give us some sweet music from a large melodeon, which was well received and as our pastor humorously remarked, "gavens music by the yard." The speakers and the choir by this time being present the chairman was elected in the person of Mr. Mc-Nell, who filled the chair throughout the evening with ability. The speakers of the ovening were Revs. II. Sinclair, Upter-grove; R. N. Grant, Orillia; Messrs. W. Gilpin, M. D., Brechin; H. Cooke, Orillia: and P. Thomson, Uptergrove. After a fine rendition of an anthem by the choir Rev. R. Grant addressed the audience for half an hour, holding them in breathless attention. Messrs. Cooke and Perry gave us "Larboard Watch" in grand style. The rendition of "Cathering Home" choir in masterly style, was followed by a speech from Dr. Gilpin, who is a young man and a clever speaker. He spoke very well and will no doubt soon become ine orator. After more soul-stirring music Mr. II. Cooke took the platform and by his pleasing style of address he entertained us admirably. We hope to see and hear more of him in the future. Next came Mrs. Warner of Orillia and sang that beautiful solo, "I am far frae Hame." Mrs. Warner solo, "I am far Irae Hame." Mrs. Warner is a charming singer, her voice so full of melody thrilled the whole audience. Then followed Mr. Thomson with a few well-chosen words of cheer. Mr. Thomson is an elder of this congregation and takes a leading part in all matters concerning the wellbeing of the congregation. Last but not least came our respected pastor, Rev. H. Sinclair, who spoke for a short time, expressing his sincere and hearty thanks to the people, especially thanking those of other denominations, Catholic as well as Methodist, who assisted us and encouraged us in our undertaking. He resumed his seat amid prolonged applause and we felt that in his remarks he had thrown around us a bond of union and made us feel that truly after all we were one flock with one truly after all we were one nock with one fold and one shepherd, the Lord Jesus Christ. A vote of thanks were passed to the ladies for the admirable repast they had served us, to Mrs. McDonald, for the use of her organ, to the Orillia Presbyterian choir, and numerous others who had aided in the entertainment. One word about the choir. Their singing is second to none. The harmony of all the voices is very striking. They would, I am afraid, cause some of the Toronto choirs, that lay claim to so much vocal talent, to look closely after their laurels. Above all they gave their services willingly without fee or reward. Regret was expressed at the unavoidable Regret was expressed at the unavoidable absence of Rev. T. P. Steele, Methodist minister of Atherly, Rev. Mr. Creighton, Methodist minister of Rama, and your brother editor, Mr. P. Murray of the Orillia Times, who had promised their presence. We also missed our generous friend, Mr. Calls. State. Colin Smith, who has been dangerously ill for some time past. We are glad to state he is now convalescent. The following cand Held gave no uncertain sound, each pronouncing in its favor strongly. I carey when the union takes place a jubilic will lake place that will stir the reliable with the sentence of the kind we are the sentence of this Canadian continent to its centre. A bad boy or two in the gallery during the evening gave rather a bad character to all the boys there.
