Maladies Multiply One Another. A simple it of indigestion may especially if the constitution is not naturally vigorous—throw the entire mechanicism of the liver and bowels out of gear. Sick headache follows, poisoning of the blood by bile cusues, and there is grave and serious disturbance of the entire system. I must say I never sold a medicine in my life that gave such universal satisfaction. In my own case, with a bedly ulcerated throat, after a physician penciling it for several days to no effect, the Relective Oil cured it in twenty-four hours, and in threatened croup in my children this winter it nover failed to relieve almost immediately.—18-1.

A West End boy, whose schoolmates had placed a pin is his chair, had the nerve to keep his seat and even look unconcerned until he had a chance to extract it unnoticed. It was tough for him, but he knew he had the satisfaction of filling their souls with disappointment.

J. H. Karl, West Shefford, P.Q., writes: 1 I. H. Earl, West Shefford, P.Q., writes: I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit until I tried Dr. Thomas's Edectric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best offect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horse in cases of outs, wounds, &c., and I think it equally as good for horse as for man—18-1.

"The fellow who wrote: "I now take my pen in hand," was troubled with remorse when he discovered, after he had mailed the letter, that he had been using a lead-penell.

The distinguished Dr. Louis Blane of Paris has been using Phosphates largely in treating consumption, and says he considers them the most reliable agent yet discovered, and reports that of all the cases treated none have become worse and the majority materially benefitted, and manifesting signs of permanent recovery. This is the record of Whester's Phosphates and Calisaya, which cares a larger proportion of cases than any preparation litherto known.—18-1.

IN MEMORIAM.

[Lines written on the death of A.Herbert, by his sister, Mrs. Robert Reeds,] 16 16 15 15 05 16 20 15 10 61 15 20 14 10 59 14 20 13 10 57 16 20 15 5 56 18 16 14 10 58 14 16 13 10 53 18 12 13 10 53 18 12 13 10 53 18 12 10 14 We miss thee much, our brother dear, Thy loss we deeply feel, But God, who took thee to himself,

We miss thee when we go to church To hear of Jesus' love; But thou art gone to join the church, The Church Redeemed above,

Can all our sorrows heal.

We miss thee in the Sabbath school Where thou didst teach the youth, To walk in wisdom's narrow way, And love and search the trnth.

We miss thee at the throne of grace, Where fervent thou didst pray. That God would for the Saviour's sake Wash all our sins away.

But thou no more doth need to pray. For prayer is lost in praise; Thy blest employ shall be to sing Christ's wondrous love and grace.

We miss thee on Communion day. To take of bread and wine, But thou art gone to feast with Christ, And in his glory shine.

We saw thy mock and patient look When severe was thy pain; But thou art now from sorrow free; O, death to thee was gain.

Our brother's death was triumphant, Yes, death had lost its sting: God gave to him the victory. Through Christ, our blessed King.

A few more trials here below And we shall meet again, In that glorious home above Where saints shall ever reign.

And when our days of warfare past And all our trials o'er, We'll meet round the throne at last, Yes, meet to part no more,

What blessed hope to us is given, While here on earth we roam, That God shall wipe away our tears. And take his children home.

Worthy of Praise. As a rule we do not recommend patent medicines, but when we know of one that really is a public benefactor, and does positively cure, then we consider it our duty to impart that information to all. Electric litters are truly a most valuable medicine, and will surely cure biliousness, fever and ague, stomach, liver and kidney complaints, even when all other remedies fail. We know whereof we speak, and can freely recommend them to all.—[Ex. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by A. Higinbotham, Lindsay.—11-f.

"Yes," said a bar-tender in a western min-ing camp, "I water my liquor, and have good reason for it too. I don't want to refuse a man a drink, because he will get mad and break up things. So I water the liquor so as it won't make him any worse. As for the sober ones, I water their liquor so they won't getdrunk at all and consequently I save a fight both ways."

A Prolific Source of Disease A triffing indiscretion in diet may lay the foundation of confirmed dyspepsia, and there is no fact in medical science more positively ascertained or more authoritively asserted than that dyspepsia is the parent of a host of bodily ills, not the least of which is contamination of the blood and the maladies of which that is the direct consequence. Their original cause is, however thoroughly cradicated from the system by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, a medicine which only requires regularity and persistence in its use to cure dyspepsia and the many ills that arise from it. No deleterious mineral ingredient is contained in it, and though its action is thorough in cases of costiveness, it never produces griping pains in the abdominal region, or weakens the bowels like a violent purgative.
